TRADE IN THE BRITISH PROVINCES—SETTLEMENT OF THE FISHERIES QUESTION.

WASHINGTON, October 18, 1868.

The following is a correct and authentic statement of the present position of the question of trade in the British Provinces, and the settlement of the fisheries disputes and the free navigation of the St. Lawrence river;

Mr. Thornton, British Minister here, addressed a note to Mr. Seward in July last calling his attention to the distressed condition of the people of Nova Scotia in consequence of their exclusion from our markets, consequent upon the termination of the reciprocity treaty and asking him to enter into negotiations. Mr. Seward referred Mr. Thornton's communication to Mr. McCulloch, Secretary of the Treasury. Mr. McCulloch replied that the treaty having been abrogated by the legislative branch of the Government he considered it would not be advisable to resume the negotiations until Congress should give some intimation of its desire that they should be re-opened, and at the same time expressing his (Secretary McCulloch's) opinion that it was for the interest of the United States that the question of Trade should be adjusted in some definite manner. The correspondence was sent by Mr. Seward to the Committee of Ways and Means just before the July adjournment, and in reply to inquiry by the Committee, Mr. Seward informed them he was ready to open negotiations for a new Reciprocity Treaty whenever the Committee should refer the matter to him. Messrs. Harper, Allison, Logan, Maynard, Brooks and Niblock of the Committee agreed to make such a report, and General Schenck was willing it should be made. Mr. Griswold was absent. The adjournment, however, took place so early that there was no opportunity of putting the report before the House, and hence the matter goes over till the reassembling of Congress, with this knowledge—the Committee of Ways and Means are nearly unanimous on the subject, and that Mr. Seward will open negotiations as soon as the Committee are enabled to report. IL the Senate the question has also been referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, and it is known that the chairman, Mr. Sumner, is strongly in favor of the negotiations.

A. J. DON'T FAVOR SEYMOUR'S WITHDRAWAL.

There is the best authority for saying that President Johnson has neither approved the proposition to withdraw Seymours name nor intimated a wish to be nominated or a willingness to accept such nomination, but on the contrary has looked upon the proposition for a change of candidates as injurious and ill timed.

RELIGIOUS.

The Protestant Episcopal Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, October 17.—In the Episcopal Church Convention, Rev. Dr. Haight, from the Committee on Canons, reported in favor of amending Canon IX, so that in the case of a Deacon or Priest ordained by a Bishop not in communion with the Episcopal Church, he shall remain on probation one year instead of six months, as at present. Adopted with but few dissenting votes.

Dr. Haight reported adversely to the amendment to Canon XIII, saying that it was inexpedient to make a domestic missionary Bishop a Bishop of a diocese organized within his jurisdiction. The report was accepted and the committee discharged.

The Committee on Canons, to whom were referred certain amendments to Canon 11, reported that the same have been made the special order for to-day and no further action was at present necessary.

Rev. Dr. Hollman, of Conn., from the Committee on the State of the Church, read a report on the work of the church, which was encouraging in tone. The conclusion recommended the adoption of a resolution to the effect that the views of the Committee be transmitted to their prayers, and also that they cause to be issued a pastoral letter to the Church. Report accepted and resolution adopted.

Rev. Hiram W. Beers, of Wisconsin, introduced a series of resolutions, preceded by a preamble, giving the wants of the Church, asking for the establishment of missionary and parish grammar schools, and also for a training school in every Diocese for the education of teachers. The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Christian Education.

Rev. Dr. Haight reported an amendment to section 4 of Canon title 3, which a delegate moved be referred to the next Canon.

After much discussion the question was settled by the adoption of the following as a substitute, by Hamilton Fish:

Resolved, The House of Bishops concurring, that the amendments to the Canons be adopted, to take effect on the adoption and ratification of the proposed amendment to the 5th article of the Constitution, as recommended by the Convention of the 16th of October, inst., viz.:

That the following be adopted as a new Canon, to be section 4, of Canon 6, of title 3:

No new Diocese shall be formed which shall at all contain less than six parishes, or six presbyters, who have been at least one year canonically resident within the bounds of such new diocese, and regularly settled in parishes thereto, and qualified to vote for a Bishop, nor shall any new Diocese be formed if thereby any existing Diocese shall be reduced so as to contain less than twelve parishes, or less than twelve presbyters, who have been residing, settled and qualified as above.

Rev Dr. Hoight, from the Committee on Canons, offered the following:

Resolved, The House of Bishops concurring, That section 6, clause 2, of Canon 12, title 1, of the Digest, be amended by inserting in the nineteenth line of said clause, immediately after the words "shall be necessary" the following words: "but nothing in this canon shall be construed to prevent any clergyman of this Church from officiating in a parish, church, or in any place of public worship used by any congregation of this Church, or elsewhere within the parochial cure of the minister of said congregation, with the consent of the clergyman in charge, or, in his absence, of the churchwardens and vestrymen or trustees of such congregation, or of a majority of them."

By order of the Committee, (Wm. Cooper Mead, Chairman,) Judge Conyngham offered a further amendment to the Canon by adding the words after "clergymen" in the fourth line, paragraph first, section six, Canon XII, title one, "with the intent or purpose of forming, or attempting to form, a new congregation within the limits of each parish or parochial care not authorized by Diocesan authority, or otherwise disturbing canonical parochial relations of such clergymen, so the canon will read "no minister belonging to this church shall officiate either by preaching, reading prayers, or otherwise, in the parish, or within the parochial care of another clergymen with the intent or purpose of forming or attempting to form a new congregation within the limits of a parish or parochial cure not authorized by Diocesean authority, or otherwise disturbing the canonacial parochial relations of such clergymen, unless he shall have received express permission for said purpose from the minister of the parish or cure, or in his absence from the church wardens and vestrymen or trustees of the congregation, or a majority of them.

The incongruity of the amendment, when read with the text of the canons, caused roars of laughter.

Judge Conyngham said there would be no difficulty in correcting the language, and proceeded to argue that the intent with which a clergyman entered into another's parish was what constituted a crime. He said it was the intention, and not the act, that would make a crime. The Judge was continuing his argument that it was flying in face of God's ordinance "to go into all lands and preach the gospel," to thus limit the preaching of the gospel, when he was cut off under the five minutes rule.

The house refused to extend his time.

The Chair ruled the Judge's amendment was not in order, as an amendment to the question before the house.

The question was taken on the resolution offered by the Committee through Dr. Haight, and it was adopted.

Judge Conyngham again got the floor, and offered his amendment as a substitute amendment, striking out the words "for that purpose" from the proposed amended canon, and inserting instead "unless he has received express permission to officiate within such limits."

Judge Comstock, of New York, offered a resolution that the accused in intrusion cases be at liberty to show that he did not intend to make a new parish or disturb the existing parochial relations.

Prof. G odwin, of Penn'a, supported the amendment.

Mr. D. E. Rossett, of North Carolina, offered the following substitute for the amendment of Judge Conyngham, to strike out all after the word "clergyman," and insert "against the express dissent of the minister, or the authorities of such parish or cure."

Rev. Dr. Peterkin, of Virginia, offered another amendment—to insert after the word "official," the words "otherwise than transiently."

Judge Conyngham's original amendment, and all other amendments, were referred to the Committee on Canons.

The friends of Mr. Tyng regard this a triumph.

The Committee on Canons reported the following canon:

First—The form of consecration of a church or chapel shall not be used at any time before sufficient evidence be furnished to the Bishop that the building to be consecrated, and that land on which it stands is free from debt or other pecuniary liabilities.

Second—The title to such building and land shall be secured to the person, persons, or corporations, authorized by the law of the State or Territory in which it is situated, to hold property for the Diocese, parish or congregation, and such building and land shall not be encumbered or alienated by mortgage or sale by the parties aforesaid without the consent of ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese in which they are situated.

Third—A church or chapel once consecrated to the service of Almighty God shall be separate from all unhallowed, worldly or common uses, and shall not be removed or disposed of or taken down unless permission be obtained from the Bishop, acting by the advice and consent of the Standing Committee of the diocese in which it is situated.

After some discussion thereon the Convention adjourned.

Ohio Young Men's Christian Association.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CLEVELAND, O., October 17.—The State Young Men's Christian Association Convention to-day discussed how to secure active work from each member of the Association. As each new man joins, his peculiar talent should be ascertained and a proper work given him; each should constitute himself a committee of one, not waiting for others.

Questions of an appropriate or the best hour for holding daily prayer meetings, also the best means for raising funds were discussed. Answer to last: Show that you are doing your work, not wasting your money.

The evening discussion was upon the desirability of street preaching, and the question, how can the influence of christian homes be extended to those who have none? Speeches were limited to three minutes. Touching appeals were made. The audience joined in singing "Home, Sweet Home." The Convention has been practical and harmonious. The business sessions closed to-night.

During the conference Gov. Seymour alluded to the suggestions made in some quarters as to a change in the Presidential ticket and said any change which should be made must include his withdrawal, that he was nominated against his wishes, and it would be a relief to him if any other name were substituted for him. The Committee replied that no change had been contemplated by any of them; that, in their judgment, nothing could be so injurious to the Democratic cause as a change of candidates, and they refused to entertain any such question.

THE SAME OLD CONTEST.

General PHIL. SHERIDAN sent the following letter to be read at a Republican meeting in New York on Tuesday evening:

H'DQ'RS OF THE MISSOURI, IN THE FIELD,
FORT HAYS, Sept. 14, 1868.

I feel a deep interest in the success of our honored chieftain in the ensuing Presidential election, believing that in it are involved the peace and prosperity of the country. I believe the same contest is now before the nation that existed during the Rebellion, and that a political victory now is as necessary as was a military victory then, and, although I feel the deepest reluctance to say aught that will connect me with any political canvass, still the memory of hard fought fields, an interest for the sacred cause for which so many lives were lost compels me now, when that cause is in danger, to unequivocally give it my support. I have not thought the Rebellion ended, and, now, when I see it again out, cropping, under its old leaders, I see the verification of the frequent boast made while I was in New Orleans, that the cause of Secession was not lost, but would yet be accomplished by making the Northern people fight each other, that the Ohio River would be the boundary line of the Southern Confederacy, and that the Rebel flag would on that line bid defiance to the Stars and Stripes. I am very respectfully, your obedient servant.

P. H. SHERIDAN,
Major-General, U. S. A.

THE GROUND-SWELL.

Popular majorities for GRANT and Peace are promised as follows:

California	20,000	Georgia	20,000
Oregon	10,000	Alabama	20,000
New Jersey	10,000	Louisiana	30,000
New York	30,000	Arkansas	10,000

Here will be a popular majority of seven hundred and twenty thousand votes, with which we can afford to abandon to the rebels their Paradise in Maryland and Kentucky.

PAR NOBILE FRATRUM.—Frank Blair worked all day for Vallandigham, in Dayton, Monday. He visited the Soldiers' Home, but was hissed and groaned out. At night he addressed a small Democratic meeting, at which he said: Suppose Seymour and Blair are elected, if there is a revolution, who will cause it—General Schenck?" he asked. "No," said the crowd. "Who, then?" said Blair. "Jeff. Davis," was the response.

COLFAX ON TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS.

The future Vice President on his way eastward on Wednesday, was detained a few hours at Cleveland. An impromptu but most enthusiastic reception was at once organized, which Mr. COLFAX acknowledged as follows:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN—I have heard of surprise parties, and this is truly a surprise party to me. Accidentally missing connection here this morning, I went up town to the house of a friend, intending to pass quietly on without attracting observation. But it seems some of you knew the facts, and now you are here with hearts warm for the great cause, I doubt not. I see your faces look happy, and I think you have been reading the election returns. Long ago our opponents told us to wait—a reaction was to set in that would annihilate us. We waited, turning our eyes eastward, and when New Hampshire voted we heard the sound. It was "Tramp, tramp, tramp! the boys are marching!" [Loud cheers.] Then we were told that Vermont would start the reaction. Vermont voted, and we heard—"Tramp, tramp, tramp! the boys are marching!" Then Maine was to have a reaction. She voted, and we heard the steady "Tramp, tramp, tramp! the boys are marching!" Then it was in Pennsylvania the reaction was to commence. Pennsylvania voted, and yesterday was heard the same "Tramp, tramp, tramp! the boys are marching!" Ohio followed, with her "Tramp, tramp, tramp! the boys are marching!" And finally Indiana, where we are liable to invasion on all sides, where we felt doubtful ourselves, comes up with the same "tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are marching!" In November you will hear the same tramp, tramp, tramp, from Maine to the Gulf, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, on every side, in the contest for liberty and to crush treason. Under our brave leader we shall crush treason in the civic battle field, and every man, high or low, learned or unlearned, white or black, if an American citizen, shall have protection under our flag.

Mr. Colfax closed by proposing three cheers for what was better than men, the principle that loyalty should govern what loyalty has preserved.

The Herald adds: Whilst he was in the depot, previous to his departure for the East, and was addressing the crowd, he was interrupted by a man who had been peddling Democratic tickets in the streets, who shouted: "What did you do in 1854? You organized a Know Nothing lodge."

Mr. Colfax promptly turned around and said, "It's a lie, sir!" There was a sensation in the crowd. The man persisted in his statement, but he was taken away by the by-standers.

To the Soldiers and Sailors of Pennsylvania.

HEADQUARTERS SOLDIERS AND SAILORS' STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE,
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16, 1868.

COMRADES: You have turned the flank of your old enemy, and he is in full retreat; but you must not pause an instant in your pursuit. Follow him up and press him upon all sides, until he is politically annihilated, and Forrest and Wade Hampton have surrendered in the last ditch. By the wayside you will find many heretofore misguided men, who will gladly join your victorious column. To all such you should extend the hand of welcome, and forget the past.

Be not blinded by the declaration that the Opposition have given up the fight. Place no reliance in rumors of a change of candidates. These things are simply weak inventions of the enemy, intended to induce you to halt in your forward movement. Keep up your organizations of "Boys in Blue." Let them, in fact, be permanent institutions in this generation. Let them continue, glorious monuments of a noble fight, for which your children's children shall bless you.

Let your efforts be solely devoted to increasing the vote of last Tuesday, and by this means demonstrate how overwhelmingly would have been your triumph had the gang of rebel vagabonds who invaded the city of Philadelphia been required by their allies at their own homes.

By order of the Committee.

CHARLES H. T. COLLIS, Chairman.
A. L. RUSSELL, Secretary.

The Grand Uprising.

The whole country is now aglow with enthusiasm over the certainty of the election of Gen. Grant. The loyal people in every State are fired with energy in working for this great consummation. Orators spring up under every bush, and yet the meetings are so multifarious that there is hardly rhetoric enough to go around.

One characteristic feature of the campaign is the great number of Democrats who crowd into Republican meetings, and who are either undecided which way they will vote, or have already determined to vote for Grant. Many Democrats will quietly vote for Grant, without ostentatiously proclaiming their intentions, and without meaning permanently to separate from the Democratic party. They think the party has blundered and deserves defeat, but have faith that after four years of Grant, Colfax and Peace, it may come forth redeemed and purged of its Rebel virus so that they can again vote for its ticket. This is a part of the secret of our earlier victories in Washington and Colorado, our sweeping majorities in Vermont and Maine, and our triumph by 2,000 in Connecticut, and the overwhelming and decisive victories in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Nebraska. —N. Y. Tribune.

Seymour on Watermelons.

UTICA, August 20, 1868.

MY DEAR SIR: Your watermellon made a sensation in our town, where we are not often treated with a sight of such remarkable size. I am gratified with your kind consideration in sending me the present, and also with your kind letter. THUS FAR EVERYTHING LOOKS WELL for us in this State, and in the North generally.

Very truly, yours, etc.,
HORATIO SEYMOUR.

Julius G. Tucker, Esq.

AT a great Republican meeting in Meadville, Pa., on last Saturday, there was one transparency in the procession which was pleasant to Democratic eyes. It was a picture of Blair asleep with an African, and the motto, "I would rather sleep with a nigger than with a Democrat." Blair made use of this expression in his speech at Terre Haute, Ind., in 1860, and hundreds of the best citizens of that place will testify that they heard him make it. Democrats, as well as Republicans heard him. He denies it now when he is drunk, but when he is sober he doesen't dare to deny it.

AT the Democratic meeeting at Greensburg, Indiana, on last Thursday week, one of the processions carried a banner bearing this inscription: "We have tried loyalty—it costs too much." Col. Cumback says that it was carried by a man who had been drafted

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

A BOTHERAYSHUN CONSARNING THE NAYGUR.

BY DINNIS O'FLAHERTY.

A question I'd ax, Misther Saymore,
Ov a matther that's bothered me quite;
It distthresses me mind in the mornin'
And throubles me dhramin at night.
Me coorse I'd be shapin' accorthin'
To the ginuine Dimmykrat plan.
But its bothered I am wid the question—
Is the naygur a baste or a man?

Shure, isn't it Dimmykrat docthrine
The naygur's a two-futted baste,
Wid wool like a shape, an' a pairfume
Dishgooshtin' to paypic of taste;
A lip like a slice of shtale liver,
An' a fut that is built on a plan
That wud shute an African monkey,
But divil a bit uv a man?

An' hasn't it bin dimonshtratid
He can niver have brains in his shkull?
For isshtid ov hair on the outside
The naygur has nothing but wool.
An' as dhirty an' black are his faytures
As the soot ov a kittle or pan;
So a baste ov some sort is a naygur;
He niver was meant for a man.

But here, bedad, is the puzzle
That bothers me night an' day;
Whin the South in the days of her gloory,
Was undher Dimmykrat shway.
The naygur was held in asujeckshun
On the old Patriarkle plan;
He was counted up wid the cattle,
An' not set down as a man.

But now it is Dimmykrat practice,
South of Mason an' Dixon's line,
To thrate a woolly head naygur
Like a gintleman superfine.
He is axed to Dimmykrat maytins,
If he wants to schake he can;
An' the spache of the baste is printed
The same as the spache ov a man.

By the side ov a black dirty naygur
A white Dimmykrat sits down to ate;
They thrip off their whishky in friendship,
And the Dimmykrat offers to thrate.
To Saymore and Blair they kape a-drinkin'
Togither as long as they can;
On the flure thin they lie down a-togither—
The baste by the side iv the man.

It's puzzled I am beyant shpakin';
Divil wan ov me knows where I shtand,
Or can tell, whin I mate wid a naygur,
To thrip him me fisht or me hand.
I'll go mad wid this same botherayshun,
I've shtood it as long as I can;
What is the new Dimmykrat docthrine—
Is the naygur a baste or a man?

—One of the ex-Queens—she of Naples—is living at Geneva.

—Louisa Pyne is not young, but she is going to be married.

—$25 is the fine in York State for shooting a bird on Sunday.

—The vintage of 1868 in France is estimated at 1,320,000,00 gallons.

—Minnesota wheat crop is estimated at 15,000,000 bushels this season.

—The women of America wear 350,000,000 of yards of calico a year.

Parepa Rosa is now on her way from San Francisco, overland, to New York.

—Nelaton thinks Prince Leopold, Queen Victoria's youngest son, can not live very long.

—Brigadier General Roberts is the newly detailed military instructor for Yale College.

—A play in Paris has a couple of lovers who trundle in on velocipedes and sing a duett.

—Dr. Muehlenberg is eighty years old. He wrote the hymn "I would not live alway."

—The quality of the South Carolina rice crop this year is said to be better than that of last year.

—The Boston Post says the coopers of Milwaukee have left off pounding and begun striking.

—The conservative candidate for Parliament from Middlesex is a son of the Duke of Abercorn.

—Rev. C. A. Brandt, once a Lutheran, then a Roman Catholic, has protested and fallen into Luther's ranks again.

—Veiullot can hardly be blamed for spoiling Offenbach by flattery. He calls him "that lascivious scoundrel of composers."

—The Duke of Albuquerque, grandee of Spain, cousin of the Duke de Sesto and the Duchess de Morny, has enlisted as a private in the Papal Zouaves.

—The author of the popular song, "Not for Joseph," has received as his share of the profits several thousand pounds. Mendelssohn received forty pounds for his Elijah.

—At a meeting of the Yale Alumni Association held in the Board of Trade Rooms, at Philadelphia, on Thursday night, Judge Strong was elected President for the ensuing year.

—The Queen of Spain has carried off the crown jewels, the property of the State. She probably satisfies her conscience by believing that Republics cannot want crown jewels.

—The amount of Government securities held by the savings banks of New York, Massachusetts, Maine and Connecticut is $100,000,000, represented by 1,002,000 depositors.

—The New York World says: "The Republican majority in Pennsylvania is but a few paltry thousands." That is the way the same paper looked upon our losses during the war.

—Rouher, the French Minister of State, like his great predecessor, Richelieu, has turned dramatist. He has written a comedy in five acts, which he has sent into the Theatre Francais.

—The World is not kind to Seymour and Blair. It says, "We feel like the owner of a horse that failed to win the race by half a neck in consequence of having slightly too heavy a rider."

—A citizen of Clark county, Wisconsin, has just taken a contract to furnish 5,500,000 feet of logs for a firm on the Mississippi. Besides this amount, he proposes to cut down 2,000,000 feet for himself.

—A telegram from Jerusalem announces that the reconstruction of the great cupola of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, which has been executed under the auspices of France, Russia and Turkey, is entirely finished.

—The late government of Spain forbid the telegraph operators from sending off the dispatches announcing the breaking out of the insurrection, which the foreign representatives at Madrid wrote to their different governments.

—The latest from Paris. A popular cook advertises that a full grown ox will be roasted entire. On payment of a dollar visitors are admitted to the kitchen, get a plate of roast meat and enjoy the music of a first-class orchestra.

—The long-expected drawing of the Paschall House lottery took place in St. Louis last week in the pagoda at the fair grounds, in the presence of fifteen thousand persons. The drawing was conducted under the superintendence of Mayor Thomas.

—There are in the whole of Germany not over forty journalists that make more than a thousand dollars a year by their profession. Some of the popular magazine writers, however, make as much as five thousand dollars annually by their literary labors.

—Bandmann has written to Germany that the new drama which Bulwer is writing for him will, perhaps, never see the light, inasmuch as Bulwer has rewritten it three times, and then, being dissatisfied with it, burnt the manuscript again and again.

—Nillssen, the Swedish songstress, is the great popular favoriie just now, and knows it. She refuses to sing any more in Paris unless she receives thirty-six thousaed francs a month from the manager of the Grand Opera. So large a salary has never before been paid to a singer.

—The Paris Temps is a very sensible paper, it says, "to judge the news which reaches us by every steamer, we can not arrive at any other conclusion than that Gen. Grant, the candidate of the party of liberty, will be elected by an overwhelming majority. God be praised for it."

—A physician in Concord, N. H., has a wonderful cane. It is so arranged as to combine a walking-stick, a thirty-inch telescope, and a nice opera glass, and all perfectly secure from dust. It is easily and readily adjusted for either purpose, and was patented on the 28th of last July.

—The Democratic Boston Post is rejoicing over the recent defeat of its party; it says "we have one advantage from the present election—it costs us nothing for powder." The Post evidently forgets the amount of shooting, and killing too, done by its friends in Philadelphia and Baltimore.

—Mrs. Pray, of Winterharbor, Me., who is over sixty years of age, started off recently, at early morning, in a boat, unassisted, and during the day caught and carried three miles to market thirty dollars worth of mackerel, returning to her home in the evening, feeling well paid for her arduous labors.

—Flotow's new opera, "The Two Composers," is very sharply criticised in Germany, the critics saying that the composer of "Martha" and "Alessandro Stradella," seems to have exhausted his talent. At all events he has written, during the past five years, nothing that could be compared with his earlier productions.

—The following is going about among our exchanges:

Said Horatio to Franky, at Uncle Sam's school,
"I can't bear to be crowded down so by this cool Little chap who scarce ever misses."
"Nor I," replied Franky, "but what's to do then?"
Horatio advised, "You run and tell Penn.;
The old Quaker's our Friend, sure as teis is."
Frank breathless returned: quoth Horatio, "Ha,
What, says Penn?" "He says that he can't be your Pa.;
He's engaged to be Pa. for Ulysses!"

—Absence of body is not always better than presence of mind; an instance of which recently came under our notice. A young lady of our acquaintance who lives in the country not a thousand miles from Pittsburgh, is an ardent Union woman; her gardner is a Copperhead. Last Tuesday morning the gardner was standing on the top of a ladder in the barn, when the ladder fell, leaving him dangling in the air to a beam, which he had fortunately been able to grasp. If he let go serious injury probably awaited him, so he called loudly for help. The young lady above mentioned was the only person near, and she refused to aid him unless he promised not to vote. This was hard, but the distant barn floor was harder, and he reluctantly promised; the ladder was raised and he descended, another victim to the wiles of "woman—lovely woman."

The Pope's Invitation to Protestants.

The London Times thinks that under present circumstances it speaks a great deal for the Pope's well-known benignity that he should bestow a thought on the Protestant bodies from whom all his troubles originated, and that he should generously consent to receive them back if they will but come. But what have we to gain by accepting it? All the strength and prosperity of Europe are in the hands of Protestantism; all is weakness and decay in the possession of Roman Catholicism. France is strong, but its life and activity are derived from the Revolution, not from Ultramontanism; and if Italy is rising, it is because Rome is falling. In the Council, too, there will be only one voice that will speak. The Pope will but hear his own conclusions. There seems only one part of the Pope's kindness we can return. He asks us to abandon our ways; suppose we ask him to abandon his? We invite him on our part not to hold the Œcumenical Council, not to anathematize all the rest of the world, not to set himself against the whole course of modern progress.

EFFORTS are being made to raise a modest monument to the late Leigh Hunt, whose grave at Kensal Green is entirely undistinguished. About £150 will be required, of which £75 have been already raised. Leigh Hunt was the intimate friend of Shelley, by whom he was greatly beloved; and whatever rank his genius may take with posterity, he will always be memorable as one of a constellation of brilliant men, one of various groups of which Lamb and Hazlitt, and Shelley and Byron were some of the most distinguished figures. Even Carlyle, who is not prone to over-value the lighter kind of literature, and has never done justice to Charles Lamb, has estimated highly Leigh Hunt's genius. Clearly, Leigh Hunt should have a monument, and not lie apparently unhonored, when so many living men of genius profess to honor him so highly.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather continues cold and winterlike, with but little prospect of rain. There is no change in the stage of water. scant eighteen inches in the canal.

Capt. W. B. Donaldson, of the Great Republic, is in the city.

—The towboat Hawkeye No. 2, from St. Louis, with four barges of iron ore, passed Louisville on Wednesday for Pittsburgh.

—Wm. Varble, falls pilot, who was at the wheel of the J. P. Webb, at the time she struck the rocks on the falls and was wrecked, has had his license suspended for thirty days.

—Portsmouth, Ohio, refuses to respond to the call for $1,000 assessed by the Cincinnati Congressional Excursion Committee toward defraying the expenses of entertaining the excursion.

—The Davenport Democrat, of last Saturday, gives the following account of a novel shipment: Messrs. Langfeldt, Thode & Co. this morning shipped on the Addie Johnson three American cooking stoves to Anthon & Sons, of Flensburg, in Schleswig, Holstein. The shipment was made via New Orleans, there to be taken by a Hamburg steamer. They save about $30 by shipping by this route instead of by rail to New York. This is the first shipment of cooking stoves ever made from Iowa to Europe.

—We copy the following items from the Memphis Bulletin, of Tuesday: It was openly charged at a late meeting of the Board of Aldermen, that sundry cotton merchants had stated that they could buy up the entire board for $3,000, and again have the privilege of storing cotton on the bluff. A wag suggests that as this is the very exact amount that Memphis is asked to contribute the Congressional excursion, that the board sell out to the cotton buyers, and save the credit of the city, even if they lose what little they have left themselves. Who'll move a reconsideration?

—The receipts for passengers on the steamers at Cincinnati for the month of September, 1868 [this includes one-half of the cabin and all the deck receipts), were: Alaska, $568; Anna, $298; Wm. Butler, $1,009; Darling, $421; Minneola, $365; Champion, $1061; Nightingale, $500; General Lytle, $3525; Lady Grace, $590; St. James, $2307; C. T. Dumont, $1086; Cliff n, $487; Gen. Buell, $3621, America, $6080; Abeona, $452; Shamrock, $480; United States, $5910; Mary Ament, $1049; Sam. J. Hale, $332; Mary Erwin, $888; Bostona, $3899; Golden Era, $372; Fleetwood, $2,569; Telegraph, $2455; Emma No. 3, $1077.

—The Nashville Times says: M. C. Wilcox & Co., of Knoxville, have received an order from a coal dealer in Memphis for one hundred car loads of Anderson county coal. Memphis has formerly been furnished with coal from Pittsburgh, Penna. Large shipments are daily being made from that market to a number of Southern cities. Capt. Dan. Able's residence, one of the Paschall House prizes, was taken in by a bar-keeper on the Cumberland river steamer Tyrone. He lives in Paducah, and needn't mix any more juleps, unless beverage-slinging has become second nature. His name dosen't appear, but we hope it isn't Muggins, as the horse couldn't stand such nonsense.

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Commercial, of Friday: Capt. Lewis Warden, United States Local Inspector of the Memphis District, died in that city on Wednesday evening, of dropsy, in the 54th year of his age. The deceased was an old resident of Cincinnati. He was a practical steamboat engineer, and commenced his career as engineer on the river in 1835 and 1836, leaving here in charge of the machinery of the New Orleans and Fort Adams packet, Fort Adams. He was also clerk of the Kentucky river packet John Drennon, and commanded the two Pontiacs and the Express. He was also chief engineer of the Cincinnati Water-works for several years. The remains are on the way here for interment in Spring Grove.

A Wheeling dispatch to the same paper says: The Wm. Butler, a few hours after her arrival from Cincinnati, was partially destroyed by fire, about two o'clock this morning. The hull, boilers and engine are saved. She had partly discharged her cargo. The fire originated in the pantry. The fire engines did not arrive until the upper part of the boat was consumed. Six mules were burned to death. No person injured.

"WE MAY BE HAPPY YET."—The old Democratic Rooster, like the "whang-doodle," mourneth. His tail feathers have "gone glimmering with the things that used to be," and with the exception of a bad cold, and a slight touch of the "Grecian bend," he still crows. He eats his rations. We hope our Democratic friends on the river will send us a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's soothing sirup or a box of Brown's troches, for the old game cock. "Trix" has no effect upon him—"tricks" is what ails him. However, we hope he will continue to crow, no matter how feeble his voice, or how weak his legs. We will not try to save a small pittance by writing him a letter that "his services are no longer needed." Nor will we "kick him out." No! We will take care of and feed him to the last. He has crowed for us. He will crow for us again, though when we look at his bowed head and haggard form, we will exclaim with the Democrat from Hoosier, "My father always told me that Grant was a d—d clever man." N. B. We are not for sale.—Louisville Democrat.

GOLD closed on Saturday in New York at 136¾.

HERE ARE THREE MODEL COUNTIES; Allegheny, Pa., 8,957; Lancaster, Pa., 6,743; Ashtabula, O., 4,258, all majorities for the Union, and aggregating twenty thousand majority for the cause of Order, Peace and Law. Look out for twenty-five thousand next time!

WE DO not find, in the official returns, any evidence that Democratic support was given to the recent "Temperance" candidate for Commissioner in this county. As usual, such issues had no attractions for that party, and served only for an useless diversion of Republican votes.

GEN. HARTRANFT gratefully appreciates the handsome compliment paid him by the Union men of Allegheny county, in giving to him the largest vote received by any candidate upon their ticket. This shows that Republicans are not unmindful of a record made equally brilliant by military and civic achievements.

IN the XIVth district, PACKER has about 2,800 majority. CESSNA, in the XVIth, has some 80 odd, which would have been at least 300 more, except for the treachery of a local faction in Chambersburg. MERCUR, in the XIIIth, has over 900 majority, in the face of the greatest Democratic frauds perpetrated in Bradford.

GEN. THOMAS has sent one company of United States troops to Guyandotte, with instructions to proceed into those counties of West Virginia where their presence may be most needed. Not a company, but a regiment would have been required for this purpose, had the BLAIR programme been ratified in last week's elections.

THE official count in Philadelphia gives only 175 Democratic majority, for BOYLE, on their State ticket. The city ticket is Democratic, by majorities ranging from 238 to 1,838, except that the Republicans elect HARE for President Judge by 25, and their two State Senators by 2,852 and 1,954 respectively. Not so bad, after all!

WHEN CALHOUN proclaimed nullification, Old Hickory seized him by the throat, and Pennsylvania, with fifty thousand majority, said, well done! Under the new programme of the BLAIR Democracy, General GRANT inherits a similar duty, and will perform it with Jacksonian nerve and promptitude, sustained as cordially by all the patriotism of the Old Keystone State.

LARGE REMEDIAL DUTIES have been imposed upon Congress and the Courts, by the clear exposure of the gigantic villainies which have been perpetrated at the recent elections in the name of Democracy. And it is a matter for the heartiest rejoicing that the District Courts of Ohio, of Indiana, and of Pennsylvania as now constituted, are tribunals in which the Law will be impartially and fearlessly administered, and that the fullest power to pronounce upon the qualifications and elections of its own members will constitutionally belong to a Republican House of Representatives.

THE DIFFERENCE between the official majority for HARTRANFT—8,957—and the reported majority of 9,100, as made up at the Republican Headquarters, is accounted for by the fact that the three Elizabeths were telegraphed as giving 520 Republican majority whereas they gave but 477; Jefferson was telegraphed at 42, instead of 23; Finlay at 2 Democratic instead of 37; and Marshall at 10 Democratic instead of 34. These reports, which were all that could be had until the official returns came in, made a difference of 121, which, added to the actual majority of 8,957, made the apparent majority 9,078.

THE DUTY OF DEMOCRATS.

[From the Pittsburgh Post, June 27, 1868.

THE DUTY OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY IN A CERTAIN EVENT.

"Suppose that * * * General Grant should be nominated for the Presidency by the Republican party, what course ought the Democratic party to pursue? Ought we to nominate a man in opposition to General Grant? Ought we to charge him with being an enemy to his country, or in favor of unjust measures, merely because he may have received said nomination? * * *

We are inclined to believe that more depends upon General Grant now, than upon any other individual in the United States. We believe him to be far superior to the majority of the far-sighted politicians, who have been ruling the nation without bringing peace or economy to our legislation. He is known to all the people as A STRAIGHTFORWARD MAN, and so far as can be judged a man well disposed to deal fairly with the people of all sections of the Union. Certainly if such a man were nominated by the Democratic party, we would advocate his election in the hope that his election would conduce to the public welfare. The question is, then, if he is nominated by the Republican party, whether we shall as a party oppose his election?

* * * * * * * * *

In the first place, if the people generally believe General Grant to be the man we think he is, no individual in the United States could command a corporal's guard against him—ON ANY PLEA WHATEVER. In the second place, it would be unjust and very injurious action for our Democratic leaders to attempt to place the Democratic party in a false position before the world, representing them as enemies or opponents of Gen. Grant.

* * * * * * * * *

What better thing can we do in case of Gen. eral Grant's nomination by the Republican party than to VOTE FOR HIM FOR THE PRESIDENCY? Our aim should be to strengthen his hands; to render him as much as possible independent of party, and to ELECT HIM AS THE PRESIDENT OF THE PEOPLE. If unanimously, so much the better.

WE SOLEMNLY BELIEVE THAT IF THE PEOPLE GENERALLY OF THE UNITED STATES CAN COME TOGETHER WITH REAL UNANIMITY ON GENERAL GRANT, IN REGARD TO THE PRESIDENCY, IT WILL BE THE HAPPIEST THING FOR OUR COUNTRY THAT COULD POSSIBLY OCCUR. The future good effects of this course are almost incalculable. We earnestly urge our Democratic friends everywhere to consider this subject carefully."

THE ISSUES WITHDRAWN.

However the opposition may settle their perplexities in the matter of candidates, one thing is clear enough, viz: that leading members of the party have resolved to throw overboard the two main planks in their platform, those embodying BLAIR'S programme of revolution and PENDLETON'S greenback theory. Our readers are already cognizant of the effort made by the New York and other politicians to throw overboard BLAIR and his programme together. The repudiation by the New York World of the PENDLETON theory is equally outspoken and complete. In an article printed on the eve of last week's elections, it represented the impossibility that either party could, in the event of the choice of a Democratic House of Representatives, accomplish any decisive financial movement, like the issue of more greenbacks without the consent of the other, and then proceeded to subscribe a hearty assent to the soundest Republican doctrine, as follows:

This is not a question on which the Government is compelled to act. The five-twenty bonds have yet fifteen years to run, unless the Government chooses to pay them sooner; and before they mature the question may cease to be of any interest, by the restoration of specie payments. Elections at present cannot turn on questions whose practical solution lies so far in the future. While the Senate continues Republican the bonds will not be paid in greenbacks; and as nobody can predict the state of the currency four years hence, the country will decide more wisely then, in presence of the facts. Under a prosperous and economical administration we may, in four years, make great advances towards resumption. We certainly should not recede in a contrary direction. If there should be a surplus revenue within the four years, it would probably be applied towards the extinction of the debt by the simple means of purchasing bonds at current rates—a proceeding which would steer clear of the present controversy, and yet have the advantage of extinguishing the debt with greenbacks."

This is an absolute, unconditional surrender of the financial plank in the New York platform. As for BLAIR, he may stick to the ticket, but he and his revolutionary propositions, which the Convention so heartily endorsed upon WADE HAMPTON'S demand, have both been emphatically repudiated, first by the people and, next, by the party which adopted them.

"Time was when the brains were out, the man would die." These two planks were the essence of the National Democracy. These thus clearly discarded and abjured, and every day of the remaining canvass a Democratic protest against the crushing weight of their unavailable candidates, it only remains for that party to compose its own limbs decently for the death which awaits it. Let it be comforted with the assurance of an honorable burial, in memory of its earlier glories, and in pity for its latter degradation.

THE report that a basis for the settlement of the Alabama questions had been agreed upon between the English Government and our Minister, Hon. REVERDY JOHNSON, is not regarded at Washington as wholly reliable. This report was to the effect that a "Mixed Commission is to be formed, to sit in London and to pass upon all claims preferred by English and American citizens." It is undoubtedly true that our Minister has succeeded in negotiating the recognition by England of the right of expatriation, which has been so satisfactory established in recent treaties with the Continental powers, but it is believed that the Alabama question will not reach any positive results until the new administration of President GRANT shall have been inaugurated.

THE SUPREME COURT.

The full Court will meet in this city today, to hold a session in banc. The term will be held by four Judges, the Governor's appointment to the vacancy not yet receiving the acceptance of Judge WILLIAMS. We have no doubt that the recent wholesale Naturalization frauds, which are wholly attributable to the complicity or to the neglect of the Prothonotary, clerks and bailiffs of this Court, and which have aroused the most intense feelings of indignation among all honest citizens, will engage, as they should, the immediate attention of the Court, and that steps, thoroughly radical and decisive, will be taken to prevent the possibility of their repetition by the same parties, or in the same way. The lame and unsatisfactory explanations which the Prothonotary has attempted, by way of a defense of his official conduct, have already been refuted by published letters from Judges AGNEW and READ. The second letter from the former, dated October 14th, is now before us, in which, after quoting Mr. SNOWDEN'S confession that "five or more" of the subordinate officers had been engaged in the business of granting these naturalization papers, Judge AGNEW covers the whole ground decisively as follows:

That would do if it belonged to each subordinate or tipstaff to decide, and he were qualified by learning and capacity to do so; but you forget, or omit to mention, that as the Court has but one judge and one prothonotary, a single person necessarily must examine and pass upon every case, and, therefore, each must be examined and determined in the twenty-five or thirty seconds of time. You consequently either permitted the subordinate or tipstave to decide upon the admission to citizenship, or suffered some of the cases to pass through without a determination.

Of course I did not expect you would discuss with me the powers of the court or its officers, but I remind you that naturalization is a judicial question, because as a lawyer (and the prothonotaries of the Supreme Court are chosen from the bar) you would know that the question is not an open one, it having been decided in Rump vs. Commonwealth, 6 Casey, 475, by our court, the bench then being composed of Lowry, C. J., and Justices Woodward, Thompson, Strong and Porter. It had long before been settled by the Supreme Court of the United States, in 4 Peters, 407. As a lawyer, I suppose you would readily comprehend what is implied in a judicial act, and thus perceive how far your practice had departed from the appropriate character of a judgment of the court. It is unnecessary to add more.

I am, with great respect, truly yours, &c.,
DANIEL AGNEW.

Col. JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN, Prothonotary Supreme Court, Phila.

WHERE IT ORIGINATED.

No one seriously pretends to believe that the proposition to withdraw the Democratic candidates will receive the general sanction of the leading men in the party. They perceive that such a change of front would be utterly unproductive of good results, and that it is, in any event, quite impracticable to unite upon any other candidates. It seems that the demand of the New York politicians was concurred in by Mr. PENDLETON'S friends in Ohio. Indeed, the Cincinnati Gazette makes the following statement:

On Wednesday a dispatch was sent from this city to New York, signed by a number of prominent Democrats, recommending the withdrawal of Seymour and Blair and the nomination of Chase, and saying, "We are now ready for this." The New York response to this appeared in the World of yesterday morning, which advocates the withdrawal of Seymour and Blair.

This statement is indirectly supported by the Commercial, of the same city, which says:

It is a curious fact that repeated efforts have been made during the last three months to induce Mr. Seymour to decline the candidacy that Vallandigham's sense of that which was due to the public safety put upon him. Impassioned personal appeals were made to him, while the Democratic delegates were still in New York, to relieve the ticket and himself by peremptorily declining. And soon afterward a messenger from this city visited him at his home near Utica, and urged him to refuse to accept the nomination and make way for Chase; and night before last, persons in the confidence of the Democratic leaders were declaring on our streets, that within forty-eight hours there would be a change of Democratic candidates.

The columns of the Cincinnati Enquirer afford still more decisive proof that the intrigue, if it did not originate with Mr. PENDLETON'S friends, has had their full cognizance and cordial support. The Enquirer printed on Friday, conspicuously, a New York telegram which, after referring to the articles of the World, asserts that these "were not published without grave consideration, with more than editorial heads;" that the articles "were intended to call out BLAIR" on the question of withdrawal; and that a recent denial, in behalf of Mr. CHASE, of his intention to vote for GRANT, was a disclaimer put out for the express purpose of covering the movement to substitute his name for that of SEYMOUR.

All this is interesting to the friends of Gen. GRANT, in so far as it discloses the extreme demoralization of the Democracy caused by the recent elections. We can look with complacency upon the sauve qui peut, which is now the only remaining watch-word among the fragments of a once powerful party.

WHO HOLD THE NOVEMBER ELECTION?

The question has arisen, which set of election officers will hold the November election in the city of Pittsburgh—those who held the election on Tuesday last, or those were elected on that day? The law authorizing the choice of election officers in this city, on the second Tuesday, is the same as the Philadelphia law, under which election officers are chosen in that city, also on the same day. A judicial decision applying to that city, therefore, may be understood as applying in full force to ours; and we find in the new digest of the election laws the following ruling, on page 135, which may be safely regarded as settling the point that the election officers chosen last Tuesday, in this city, will hold the November election:

It has been ruled by the Court of Common Pleas, of Philadelphia county, that the offices of Inspector and Judges are annual offices, and, therefore, that the election officers elected in the city of Philadelphia, at the general election on the second Tuesday in October, are to hold the Presidential election in the same year, whilst in the county that election is to be held by the officers chosen on the third Friday of March.

THE MAJORITIES.

Official returns from all the counties of this State but thirteen, and these estimated from the latest reports, give the Republican majority in Pennsylvania on the 13th at 10,502.

Ohio gave a Republican majority of about 17,000 on the State ticket, on the same day.

In Indiana, the vote was closer, but our majority will not be less than 1,000 and will not exceed 2,000; the former figure is conceded by the opposition.

Nebraska gives us a majority of not less than 2,200, her State Senate being unanimously Republican, and only five Democratic Representatives in the other branch.

Colorado sends a Republican delegate, with his certificate of election by 17 majority in his pocket.

Dakota also chooses a Republican delegate, Spink, by several hundred majority.

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

The Union men West of the mountains have done gloriously. Next month, they promise still better things. The annexed paragraph from that sterling journal, the Beaver Argus, addressed to its friends in that county, expresses the determination which prevails in every county in this section of the Commonwealth. It says:

"You have done so far excellently. But November is at hand, and you can even do better. Bring out every Grant voter. There are many who did not vote at this election who will vote for Grant. Let these all be voted and Beaver county is sure for a Republican majority of a thousand at least. Let us all go to work and make it sure."

OF THE SIX MEMBERS OF CONGRESS claimed as Democratic gains in last week's elections, at least four will be unseated with but little trouble, and by the manifestly just rights of their Republican contestants. MOFFIT and FOSTER, from this State, DICKENSON, from Ohio, and VOORHEES, from Indiana, will undoubtedly be thrown out, after this Congressional scrutiny. Our readers all understand the merits of the two cases first named; the small majority claimed by VOORHEES is more than triply due to votes illegally colonized by his rebel friends, while DICKENSON, in the IXth Ohio District, substantially admits the naturalization frauds as charged, but casts the whole blame therefor upon the Clerk of his County. The Cleveland Herald says:

Further developments show that over three hundred fraudulent papers were used in one county in the Ninth District, and there is no doubt that sufficient proof will be brought to unseat Judge Dickenson. Other instances have come to light of these papers being fraudulently voted on in this city, and the investigations are still going on. It is known that the bogus naturalization papers issued from Judge Dickenson's office have found their way into other counties in Northern Ohio, outside of the Ninth District, and the more the matter is investigated, the more extensive becomes the discovered field of the villainy.

The proofs thus multiply that, when the Democratic election returns of last week, from all quarters, are stripped of their dishonesty, there will be remarkably little left of their "gains."

THE DEMOCRATS in these parts are heartily sick of the campaign, and are in the humor of throwing up the sponge and conceding the election of Gen. GRANT. This feeling is quite natural. They had been, prior to election day, so hopeful and sanguine of carrying Pennsylvania, that when the blow came they were wholly unprepared for it, and gave way beneath its weight. Many have abandoned their colors and openly declared for GRANT and COLFAX. Could the November election be held to-morrow, the Republicans would sweep Pennsylvania by at least sixty thousand majority, so great has been the revulsion in politics since Tuesday last. We do not know how far the leaders of the opposition may be successful in checking the tidal waves which have set in upon them, but it is beyond human power for them now to save the wreck of their political organization. Good Republicans will see in the discomfiture of the enemy new cause for steady, active work, and, resting not on the glory of the grand victory they have achieved, will push the enemy at every point and secure his complete overthrow in Pennsylvania and the Union.

GEN. HANCOCK is reported to have expressed his satisfaction at the defeat of the Democracy last week. PENDLETON joins in an intrigue to choke off SEYMOUR and BLAIR. BLAIR intimates that this can't be done. His brother declares that the ticket should be reversed. The Southern rebels are enraged that any change should be proposed. Mr. ADAMS, of Massaceusetts, goes to the Gulf States to electioneer against the new rebellion of BLAIR, and to preach a new gospel of peace and good-will unto all men. Every financial idea the party could boast of has been formally disowned. In short, Democracy has become chaos—and nothing else, and its masses are moving over, almost to a man, to the support of GRANT and COLFAX, leaving their former leaders in a political Pandemonium to quarrel over their ruin.

THE ANNEXED paragraph, from one of the most influential journals in the Commonwealth, expresses the unanimous wish of all honest friends of a pure suffrage, and of an upright and impartial Judiciary. It says:

It is to be hoped that upon the meeting of the Court in banc, in Pittsburgh next week, one of the first actions, after swearing in Judge Williams, will be the removal of Prothonotary Snowden and his subordinates through whom these monstrous naturalization frauds were perpetrated in the name of the highest Court in the State.

As Judge WILLIAMS still holds his acceptance under advisement, it is apparent that his own decision must precede the much-desired action of the Court.

THE Sunbury American points, with just satisfaction, to the extraordinary poll made by Hon. J. B. PACKER, the Congressman-elect, who led the State ticket in every county in his district and in that borough, his native place, received 536 out of the 700 votes cast. The American adds that if the Republicans of Sunbury continue to gain upon the opposition as they have in the years '66, '7 and 8, "it will take but a year or two to make Northumberland Republican."

THE DEMOCRATIC "DEAD WOOD."

We have not space, nor could we have the cruelty, to print all the savage things said by leading Democratic journals in denunciation of men who were lately the favorite leaders and candidates of their party. Let us be satisfied with one sample, like this from the Philadelphia News of the 16th:

It is admitted on all sides that the fate of Seymour and Blair is sealed, and that they are but as dead wood in the pathway of a host of people who desire to go forward. They must go out of the way, or the party that has put them up will go back to the grave from whence they were exhumed.

THE REPUBLICAN POLICY.

The large reductions effected by Congress in the expenditures of the government, for the current year, will be matched by an equal retrenchment at the next session. Heads of Bureaus in the various Departments are already preparing their estimates for the year 1869-70, the figures so far in each case exhibiting a marked decrease. Economy, efficiency and fidelity will be conspicuous features in the GRANT administration.

WE HAVE chronicled the advice given by an influential Democratic journal in Philadelphia, that its friends should vote early and often, advice which was not more seriously given than faithfully followed. We print elsewhere an account of naturalization frauds in Northwestern Ohio, quite matching in audacious effrontery the same game as played by the Pennsylvania Democracy. We have from all quarters, of the three great States which voted last Tuesday, ample corroborative proofs that the opposition leaders had organized a gigantic conspiracy, embracing all of these States, for the purpose of swamping the lawful votes of their citizens by a most desperate and infamous programme of frand and violence. It is everywhere the same startling story of perjuries, colonizations, naturalization certificates distributed by the ream without question as to the title of the recipients, and of votes cast so early and often as to satisfy the most incredulous that the Philadelphia journal gave expression, in the recommendation above alluded to, to the deliberately settled, and universal policy of the opposition. Fortunately for the country's peace, this infamous plot, wide-spread and thoroughly organized although it was, has failed of the intended success. Here and there, a few close Congressional districts have apparently been secured by the conspirators, but even these fruits will be dashed from their hands by the still paramount authority of the law; all such wrongs will be righted, and such remedies will be promptly devised and applied, by the proper authorities as will effectually prevent any repetition of such Democratic outrages upon the purity of the suffrage. As another specimen of the audacity with which the "vote early and often" principle has been adopted by that party, and as illustrative, equally, of the desperate recklessness of its leaders, and of the precise character of their rank and file upon which they have relied to accomplish their designs, we quote an account of the election scenes at Columbus, Ohio:

At a quarter past three in the afternoon of Tuesday, John G. Thompson, a member of the National Democratic Executive Committee, drove to the Ninth ward polls, in Columbus, and read, in a loud voice, what purported to be telegraphic dispatches from Greene and Clarke counties, to the effect that the Republicans had driven the Democrats from the polls in Xenia, and were voting twelve hundred negroes; that they had voted four hundred negroes in Springfield; that the votes of seventeen Irishmen in South Charleston had been rejected, etc. J. G. Thompson then continued in a loud and excited tone: "Irishmen! this is too outrageous to be borne. There are yet two hours and more. Stand to your guns and see that that time is well put in." Up to this time six hundred and ninety-two votes had been polled. Within a little more than an hour seven hundred and forty had been received and recorded. Scores of strangers and roughs—the rotten rubbish collected from all the wards of the city—were brought on drays and in carriages, and voted in platoons. No vote was rejected, and no questions asked. More than twenty Republicans were defrauded of their votes by being prevented by this mob of Copperhead blackguards from going near the polls. No Republicans were allowed to stand or pass anywhere in the vicinity of the place of voting.

COUNSEL FOR THE CARELESS.

The body is a machine, and carelessness in its management is as sure to lead to evil results as carelessness in the management of a steam engine. Yet the last thing that most people think of is the protection of this delicate piece of the Creator's handiwork from the subtle causes of disease by which it is surrounded. It is no easy thing to repair the system when in ruins; but there is no difficulty in fortifying it against many of the dangers to which it is exposed. Guard against nervous debility. At the first symptom of this fore-runner of more serious ailments, sustain the flagging energies of nature with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Take it regularly and persistently, until bodily vigor is thoroughly restored. It creates an appetite, promotes—or, it might as properly be said compels—the complete digestion of the food, regulates the secretive action of the liver, tones and invigorates the bowels, improves the condition of the blood, and gives firmness to the nerves. Upon a system thus strengthened and regulated in all its important functions, the fogs and exhalations of autumn, pregnant with the elements of intermittent fever can make little or no impression. Whoever supposes that fever and ague is an unavoidable evil in certain districts, at this season of the year, is egregiously mistaken. As effectually as a draught of cold air is shut out by the closing of a door, this complaint, and all disorders of a miasmatic type, may be prevented by the use of the BITTERS. When sickness can be avoided by a means so safe and simple, is it not the merest fatuity to neglect the proffered antidote? Regarded either as a preventive or a cure for dyspepsia, biliousness, intermittent fever, nervous disorders, general debility, or constipation of the bowels, this pure vegetable preparation stands alone.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is enriched by some of the most valuable plants and herbs known to be useful and curative in all deteriorated states of the human blood, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption, so hopelessly incurable, and so most surely fatal. Let any one afflicted with any pulmonary disease try but one bottle, and they will be convinced of the value of Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure. Sold by the gross, dozen or single bottle, at Dr. KEYSER'S Great Medicine Store, 140 Wood St.

GOLD BONDS

OF THE

Central Pacific Railroad Co.,

A LIMITED QUANTITY of the Thirty Year Six Per Cent. First Mortgage Bonds of the Central Pacific Railroad Company are offered to investors, for the present,

At 103 and Accrued Interest, in Currency.

These Bonds are secured by a Trust Deed upon the most important link of the great Inter-Ocean Railroad, two-thirds of which is already built, at a cost of nearly

ONE HUNDRED MILLIONS,

And which enjoys already a self-sustaining way traffic. The whole line of continuous rail between

NEW YORK AND SAN FRANCISCO,

Will be completed by July next, when an immense through business will undoubtedly follow. More than 1,200 MILES of the distance between the Missouri River and the Pacific Ocean are already traversed by the locomotive; and it is probable that 300 miles additional will be completed during the current year. The future of this Line, therefore, is unusually promising. The Central Pacific Railroad Co.

Receive from the United States Government about ten millions of acres of the

PUBLIC LANDS,

Situated along the line of their Road; also a Subsidy Loan of U. S. SIX PER CENT. BONDS, averaging $85,000 per mile, as fast as the sections of twenty miles are completed. They have received in addition, important GRANTS from the state and cities of California, worth more than $3,000,000 IN GOLD. The proceeds of these Lands, Bonds, Capital Stock, Subscriptions, Subventions, and Net Earnings are invested in the enterprise, to which is added the amount realized from First Mortgage Bonds. THESE LATTER HAVE THE FIRST LIEN UPON THE WHOLE PROPERTY, and are issued to the same amount only as the Government advances, or to the extent of about one-third the cost value of the Road, equipment, etc.

The Cash Resources are abundant for the completion of the work, and the NET EARNINGS, FROM THE WAY TRAFFIC UPON 350 MILES NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS, ARE MORE THAN DOUBLE THE CURRENT INTEREST LIABILITIES.

☞ Besides a mileage upon all through business, this Road, having the best lands for settlement, the most productive mines, the nearest markets, and being exempt from competition, will always command LARGE REVENUES, WHICH ARE WHOLLY IN COIN.

Two-thirds of the entire Loan is already marketed, and judging by past experience, the Loan will soon be closed. Investors who desire an unusually safe, reliable and profitable security would do well to purchase before the Bonds are all taken.

☞ The Company reserve the right to advance the price at any time; but all orders actually in transitu at the time of any such advance will be filled at present price. At this time they pay more than 8 per cent. upon the investment, and have, from National and State laws, guarantees superior to any other corporate securities now offered.

The First Mortgage Bonds are of $1,000 each, with semi-annual gold coupons attached, payable in July and January. Both INTEREST AND PRINCIPAL ARE MADE EXPRESSLY PAYABLE IN UNITED STATES GOLD COIN. The back interest from July 1st is charged only at the currency rates.

We receive all classes of Government Bonds at their full market rates, in exchange for the Central Pacific Railroad Bonds, thus enabling the holders to realize from 5 TO 10 PER CENT. PROFIT, and keep the principal of their investment equally secure, and receive the same rate of interest for a longer period.

Orders and inquiries will receive prompt attention. Information, Descriptive Pamphlets, etc., giving a full account of the Organization, Progress, Business and Prospects of the Enterprise furnished on application. Bonds sent by return Express at our cost.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of the Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. The latter the Company agrees to return to be assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or its General Agents.

☞ LOCAL AGENTS ARE WANTED in every City and Town; and applications from competent parties for such agencies with suitable endorsement, should be addressed to THE COMPANY'S GENERAL AGENTS ONLY, in their respective districts.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, October 17, 1868.

Gold remained very firm to-day at 137¼. Cash gold is very scarce, and loans at from ⅛ to ¼ per cent. per day; it is the main cause of the firmness, and the only support of the market. The main argument used in favor of a decline is the anticipated large shipments of cotton and produce, and the suppositon that the interest due Europe on November next will be reinvested in bonds. As for the cotton it is not so certain that large shipments will be made so long as gold remains so low, and the price to the producer is considerably reduced. Shipments may be deferred until after next January, and likewise, would an early closure of inland navigation keep the grain in the west, and prevent shipments at a time when railroad freight charges cannot compete with the low prices in Europe current at present. As for the bondholders of Europe, it has all along been maintained that it was the small capitalists who owned our bonds, but why are small bonds not commanding a higher price in the market than the larger denominations. The shipment of half a million of gold on steamer to-day might upset all the nice theories of a gold premium expected at 125.

Bonds are very strong, and the movement is still upward; the principal purchases are on speculation.

Stocks have reacted on Fort Wayne and North Western; Cleveland & Pittsburgh fluctuated from 91¼ down to 89¾, and again went up; there is a determination to run up the stock to 95. Ohio and Mississippi was dull at 31½, but finally advanced to 132¾. Stocks, in general, are entirely too high, and the coming week may witness a heavy decline.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 137¼; Eighty-one's, 115¾; Five Twenties, 1862, 114¼; do, 1864, 112, do, 1865, 112½; do, 1865, new, 110⅞; do, 1867, 111; do, 1868, 111¼; Ten Forties, 106¼; Railroads —Cleveland & Pittsburg, 91¼; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 117; Chicago & Rock Island, 108¾; Chicago & North Western, 98¼; do Preferred, 98½; Michigan Southern, 90⅝; Reading, 99; Erie, 48¼; New York Central, 128¾; Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 32¾; Western Union Telegraph Co. 36¾; Merchants Union Express Co., 23. Mining shares—Quicksilver, 21.

—The recent heavy losses of the Chicago merchants by the "cornering" process have caused in them a realizing sense of the immorality of that process, which they did not manifest when the profits were running into their own pockets, and the Board of Trade have adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the practice of getting up corners, making contracts for the purchase of a commodity, and then taking measures to render it impossible for the seller to fulfill his contract for the purpose of exorting money from him, has been too long tolerated by this and other commercial bodies in the country, to the great injury and discredit of legitimate commerce; that these transactions are essentially improper and fraudulent; and should any member of this Board hereafter engage in these transactions, resolved, that the Directors shall take proper measures for his expulsion from the Board, under rule 5, providing for the prevention of improper and fraudulent transactions.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, October 17, 1868.

REVIEW FOR THE WEEK.

The market during the past week has been a quiet one, the volume of business having been rather light, though the sales, in the aggregate, were doubtless larger than those of last week. Prices continued to decline steadily until Thursday evening, when spot oil sold down to 27¾; subsequently, there was a reaction, and on Friday the same delivery sold at 28½ to 28¾. Crude held its own better than refined, though it, as a matter of course, declined slightly also. The receipts of Crude during the week were 20,376 bbls, against 23,554 bbls last week; receipts from January 1st to date, 854,796 bbls. The exports of Refined for the week were 16.360 bbls, against 17,069 bbls last week; exports from January 1st to date 558,859 bbls. Thus, it will be seen, that the exports continue rather light, and the receipts of Crude are also comparatively small.

CRUDE.

The market although quiet was steady—not a single sale reported. Spot and the last half of October, is generally held firmly at 12, although we did hear of an offer to sell one thousand barrels at 11¾. November and December are nominal at 11¾ to 11½. Sale—last evening—of 1,000 bbls at $1.50, delivered on cars at Venango City. The market is in a very peculiar condition just now, and operators generally are at a loss to know what course is best for them to pursue. The whole thing hinges on the course of the market during the next two or three months; there seems to be an expectation that prices will rule higher, within that time, but the basis for such predictions do not appear strong enough in the eyes of those who are out to go in. Hence there is a general stand off to await future developments.

REFINED.

The market for Refined is also in a very queer condition, and, as a consequence, there is but comparatively little doing. We can report 500 bbls for October at 29½c; 500, spot, at 28¾c; 1,500 each for November and December at 29¼c, and a "line" of 500 each from January to June at 29c. We are cognizant of one broker who had orders from Philadelphia to buy spot at 28¾, and sell November and December at 29½c, but he could not buy the one or sell the other, 29c being the best offer that could be obtained for the latter, while there were no sellers of the former. There is a continued fair western demand for 50 and 100 barrel lots, and 26 to 27c may be given as the ruling quotations, delivered on cars here.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, October 17, 1868.

The general markets have again been rather dull during the past week, but now that the State election is over, and the result of the Presidential canvass foreshadowed, we may reasonably look for better times. The only really important feature we have to notice lies in the fact that the impression is gaining ground that Flour and Wheat have about touched bottom, and dealers generally feel like pitching in, and the same is true of speculators. Wheat is much lower relatively than any other kind of grain; Barley is worth 20 to 25 cents per bushel more in this market than Wheat. Another matter worthy of notice, is the decline in the price of Hogs, having dropped in a very short time fully two dollars per cwt. Packers generally commence opertions about the first of November, but it is probable that packing will be delayed this fall fifteen and perhaps thirty days.

APPLES—In good supply and dull, but unchanged; at $2,50 to $3,50 per bbl.

APPLE BUTTER—Is dull and under the influence of increased receipts, prices are lower; we now quete at 75 to 80.

BUTTER—The stock of Butter continues to accumulate, and the market is dull but prices are unchanged: prime to choice Roll is offering at 35 to 37 cts.

EGGS—In consequence of diminished receipts have advanced, and may be quoted at 24 to 25.

CHEESE—Is quiet but steady with regular sales at 17 to 20c, as to quality.

CRANBERRIES—Quiet and unchanged, at $15 to $16 per bbl for prime cultivated.

CHESTNUTS—Unchanged at $6,00 per bushel.

POTATOES—Peach Blows and Neshannochs 85 to 90 cents per bushel. Baltimore Sweets $4 to $4,50 per bbl, and prime fresh receipts Jerseys, $5,25 to $5,50.

ONIONS—In fair demand at the recent advance, $5 to $6 per bbl.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is unchanged at 13¼c for Shoulders; 16 to 18c for Ribbed and Clear Sides, and 20 to 20½c for Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle rendered Lard, 20 to 20½c. Mess Pork, $30,50 to $31.

LARD OIL—Is firm but unchanged at $1,25 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

HAY—Baled Hay is a shade firmer, in consequence of diminished arrivals, but prices are unchanged, ranging from $25 to $30 per ton.

SEEDS—Flax Seed is in steady demand, at $2,50. Timothy Seed is dull and nominal at $3 to $3,25. Cloverseed dull and nominal.

FLOUR—The market is quiet and devoid of any new or important features, excepting, perhaps, that the conviction is deepening that prices are about as low as they are likely to go for the present, and there are some who predict a reaction. We continue to quote at $8,50 to $9,25, for Spring Wheat brands; Winter Wheat may be quoted $9,75 to $10,25. The mills continue to quote Extra Family at $10,30 in bbls, and $10, in sacks: Double Extra at $10,80, in bbls, and $10,50 in sacks. Rye Flour, $8,50.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and nominally unchanged; No. 1 Spring, $1,75, and No. 1 Winter, $1,95 to $2. Barley is in active demand, and as the impression seems to be that it will go still higher, prices are firm and tending upward. We quote No. 1 Spring at $2,20 to $2,25, and 5 to 8c higher for Winter. Oats firmer, but not quotably higher; sales at 67c, on track, and 69 to 70c, in store. Corn is dull but nominally unchanged; prime Yellow is offered in bulk at $1,14. Rye is firmer but unchanged at $1,45 to $1,50.

CIDER—Quoted at $5 to $6 per bbl.

SALT—Is dull but unchanged at $1,75, to the trade, and $1,90 to $2, in store.

MILL FEED—Is very dull; sale of 1 car Shipstuffs at $1,15.

WHISKY—Is firm and in fair demand but unchanged; sales Rectified at $1,25 and Highwines, $1,35.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Market steady and a fair business doing although the trade is far from being active. Heavy Brown Sheetings, Light Pacific P, extra Amoskeag A, and Atlantic A, bring 15¼a16; Stark A, 15; Augusta, 14; Dundas Prints, 12½; Spragues 12½; Amoskeag, 12; Arnolds, 11 for new, and 10 for old styles. Low priced flannels are scarce and wanted. Imported dress goods are abundant being forced to sell at a material discount from current rates. Osnaburgs in light stock and wanted at enhanced prices; Falmouth bring 8 and Flint River 21. Brown Drills scarce and firm at 7 for export, and 18 by the package for the best brands.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

"WEDDED LOVE'S FIRST HOME."

"'Twas far beyond yon mountains, dear, we plighted
Vows of love:
The ocean wave was at our feet, the autumn sky
above,
The pebbly shore was covered o'er with many a varied shell,
And on the billow's curling spray, the sunbeams glittering fell.
The storm has vexed that billow oft, and oft that sun has set,
But plighted love remains with us, in peace and luster yet.

"I willed thee to a lonely haunt, that bashful love
might speak,
Where none could hear what love revealed, or see the crimson cheek;
The shore was all deserted, and we wandered there alone,
And not a human step impressed the sand-beach but our own;
Thy footsteps all have vanished from the billow-
beaten strand
The vows we breathed remain with us—they were not traced in sand.

"Far, far, we left the sea-girt shore, endeared by childhood's dream
To seek the humble cot that smiled by fair Ohio's stream;
In vain the mountain cliff opposed, the mountain
torrent roared;
For love unfurled her silken wing, and o'er each barrier soared.
And many a wide domain we passed, and many an ample dome,
But none so blessed or dear to us, as wedded love's first home.

"Beyond those mountains now are all that e'er we loved or knew,
The long-remembered many, and the dearly-cherished few;
The home of her we value, and the grave of him we mourn
Are there;—and there is all the past to which the heart can turn;—
But dearer scenes surround us here, and lovelier joys we trace,
For here is wedded love's first home—its hallowed resting place."

"One More Unfortunate."

The Nashville correspondent of Cincinnati Times relates the following:

"A week ago to-day, there died in a wretched tenement just outside the city, and not far from Ash Barracks, a female whose career presents a terrible example of fallen womanhood. Filth, misery, the ribald songs, the oaths and obscenity of unfeeling companions, were the associations which clustered around the mortal hour of one who, beautiful and accomplished, moved a few years ago in the high circles of Cincinnati society. The story is a sad one, and a few facts, which we have from a pious gentleman who was sent for to visit her on the day of her death, are full of terrible suggestions. The woman went by the name of Carrie West, but her real name was Julia Rockland.

"She was the only daughter of a Cincinnati merchant, who was left a widower when Julia was eight years of age. The child grew up under the fostering care of the father, who lavished upon her all the love of a deep and melancholy nature. She expanded into a beautiful girl, petted and admired by all who knew her, and was the reigning belle for several seasons after her debut in society. Her father had spared no pains in her education, and a brilliant future seemed opening before her. Wealth and beauty are all-powerful, and she did not lack for suitors to her hand. Her affections were won by a man whom her imagination painted as everything noble and good. But he was a devil in disguise, and after betraying her and ruining her, went abroad and was heard of no more. The frenzy of the father was terrible, and he spurned his child from his door with curses and bitter revilings.

"For months he lingered on the verge of insanity, and finally, partially recovering, closed out his business and started across the plains to California, determined to wear out his great sorrow and court forgetfulness amidst the wild scenes and wilder life of the far West. He perished on the plains, a victim to the savages. The daughter entered one of the gilded hells of infamy of Cincinnati, but hers was the story of thousands expressed in the single word—downward!

"She came to Nashville towards the close of the war, and has, it seems, remained here nearly ever since. Her beauty soon faded and disease left her a wreck. But why prolong the mournful narrative? The end came swiftly at last, and the pine box and the unmarked grave are all that is left now. O, gnawing despair and endless perdition, thou hast gathered to thyself another victim, but still the gay world goes on the same, and airy forms and gaunt skeletons dance along the bleak and hideous path, whose end how little heeded, whose victims how little mourned!"

The California Snake.

The Calveras Chronicle, of September 7, has the following about the "field snake," said to have been seen in that country:

Some time ago we published an account of an immense snake, reported to have been seen by several persons in the neighborhood of Young's Ranch, near Spring Valley. While its size may have been exaggerated by those who saw it, we never have had any doubts but that an enormous reptile was actually seen in that vicinity. As if to settle the matter, however, in regard to the reality of his existence, his snakeship has again designed to make his appearance in public, in a different locality. As Mr. W. P. Peck, of our town, a gentleman whose reputation for truth and veracity is "above suspicion," and whose habits of life are such as to preclude the possibility of his carrying around imaginary serpents in his boots, was returning from Alexander & Co.'s mill, in old Rich Gulch, one day last week, he saw the monster. The road leading from the gulch is exceedingly steep, and winds around the side of the hill, so that it is difficult for teams to pass each other when they meet. Mr. Peck was driving up the grade in a buggy, when he heard a peculiar hissing kind of a noise, which he supposed was caused by a loaded wagon coming down the hill with a break on. Being at the time in the most eligible place to the road to pass a team, he endeavored to stop his horses for that purpose, but they reared and plunged so violently that he was obliged to proceed to avoid being precipitated over the embankment. The road is fringed with dense chaparral, and hearing a rustling among the bushes, Mr. Peck cast his eyes upon the bank above him, when he saw a huge snake gliding into the brush. As it was just at dark he was unable to get a full view of the reptile, but the portion of him which he saw, some six or eight feet of his tail, "was as large as a man's leg." Mr. Peck met no team. The noise that he heard must have proceeded from the snake.

A COLMERCIAL CONVENTION is now in session at Norfolk, Va., with the special object of perfecting measures for the completion of the railroads between the Ohio and Mississippi valeys and Norfolk, and for the establishment of a line of steamers from that port to Europe. A consolidation of the roads from Richmond through Danville, Va., Greensboro, N. C., Charlotte, N. C., and Atlanta, Ga., is proposed. The line of steamers to Europe, it is stated, will be started at once with two vessels, and about half of the necessary outlay will be contributed in England.

THE Beaver Dam (Wis.) Citizen says that on Friday last, among the bundles of wool received at Chandler, Congdon & Co.'s woolen mills, was one tied up in a copy of the La Crosse Democrat, and on opening the bundle, a little red bellied snake, seven or eight inches long, was found snugly snoozing there. It wriggled as lively as the Democratic party in Maine, and Mr. E. C. McNitt, the carder, who found it, thought it was a copperhead, just hatched from that copy of the La Crosse Democrat.

Novel Nuptials—Wedding in a Theatre.

Maguire's Opera House in its palmiest days never contained a greater throng than on last evening. They convened to listen to a poem and a lecture, and to witness the nuptial rite, the leading spirit being a lady—and that lady Laura Cuppy. The fairer portion of creation outnumbered the sterner. The first part of the programme consisted of the reading of a poem on "The Beautiful Land." Next followed an erudite but brief essay on "Radicalism," in which the lords of creation got some hard hits. Madame Cuppy invited the audience to remain and witness, if they so desired, the marriage ceremony, which would be performed by herself, she being, as teacher in a religious organization, clothed legitimately with the right to carry out the rite. Inasmuch as this was what the crowd was there for, nobody left the theatre. Thereupon a young and fine looking couple advanced from behind the scenes, and at this most novel hymenial altar were they united (we hope for life) by a female. The ceremony was brief but impressive. "You do solemnly swear, Abigal, in the presence," &c., "to take," &c., our readers know the formula better than we (a batchelor) can give it. At the conclusion of this very novel entertainment the parties retired beyond the scenes, the groom not forgetting to drop a liberal amount of coin in the purse of the fair functionary who had made himself and his so happy.

"Love lighted in the bosom's shrine,
Thro' the long ages as they roll,
Burns ever with a restless fire,
Deathless, immortal as the soul?"

THE New York Musical Review utters the following: Concerning the young ladies of Philadelphia, and which will apply to Pittsburgh, it is said that they could not walk to an evening concert or lecture, or other place of amusement. The beaux, consequently, have to stand the damage of carriage hire. To walk to a place of amusement, or even on a pleasant evening, is considered infra dig. This makes sad havoc with the pocket money of the young gentlemen who do these things; but the girls are inexorable. A new Yorker once expostulated with a company of young ladies on this point; but they maintained that any one who considered hegself a lady would insist on the carriage. "How do you manage with your New York ladies on such occasions?" asked one of the fair disputants. "We 'bus 'em," replied the gallant New Yorker. "O, well, we should'nt object to that," was the general response.

MR. BURLINGAME, according to dispatches received by the Atlantic Cable, will succeed in carrying out the objects of his mission. His personal intercourse with the prominent men of London appears to have effected a favorable impression, and the attacks in the English newspapers upon the treaty negotiated with Mr. Seward, and upon the objects of the mission, have ceased to appear. Dispatches received in London from all parts of Europe show that the Continental nations are favorably disposed towards Mr. Burlingame, and that he and his associates will be cordially welcomed at the different courts.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

Appointed.—Mr. W. P. Floyd has been appointed Gauger in this District by the Government.

Disorderly.—Alderman Johns on Saturday committed to jail John Jackson, charged with gross disorderly conduct, on oath of James Brightmore.

Personal.—Yesterday morning Gen. Ambrose Burnside arrived in the city by the Cincinnati Express and put up at the Union Depot Hotel He left early this morning for the East.

Committed.—Ellen Logan made information before Alderman Humbert on Saturday, against Thomas Miller for fornication. The accused was arrested and committed for trial in default of $300 bail.

The New Chief.—We understand that Mr. John Irwin, a well known police officer, has been appointed Chief of Police, in place of Mr. Matthew Greene, and will enter on his duties to-day.

The First Snow.—On Saturday a considerable amount of snow, the first of the season, fell here. Farther east the fall was greater, and we hear that the mountains were white with the wintry mantle.

New Boilers.—Workmen have been engaged for several days in removing the two boilers used for heating the Union Hotel with steam. They will be replaced with new ones of the Harrison pattern.

The Pittsburgh Turners are now visiting Cleveland, where a warm reception was given them yesterday. They appeared at the Academy of Music, in that city, last night, where a welcome concert in their honor was given by the Cleveland Gesangverein.

Bursted.—The water pipe leading into the California House, Federal street, Allegheny, bursted on Saturday morning. The accident was first made known by the oozing of the water up to the surface. Workmen were immediately engaged, and the damage repaired in a few hours.

Malicious Mischief.—Dennis Golden made information on Saturday before Alderman McMasters against John Mulherron for malicious mischief. The prosecutor alleges that the defendant entered his house and broke the bannisters of the stairs, damaging the place to the amount of twenty dollars. A warrant was issued.

$500 Reward.—The newly appointed Fire Marshal, Capt. Geo. W. Murphy, is determined to ferret out the villain who fired the building, 35 Market street, occupied as a trunk factory by Mr. John Bell. With this purpose in view he offers a reward of five hundred dollars for such information as will lead to the arrest and conviction of the incendiary.

Personal.—Our gifted young friend Charles F. McKenna, Esq., was on Saturday admitted to practice law at the Allegheny County bar. Mr. McKenna is well known and highly esteemed in this community, and will doubtless rapidly advance in the profession he has chosen, and for which he is so eminently qualified and adapted. We hope there is a bright future in reserve for him.

Larceny as Bailee.—Eliza McGee made information on Saturday before Alderman McMasters against John Pool and his wife Mary Pool for larceny as bailee. Mrs. McGee alleges that the defendants obtained a lot of household furniture, consisting of a bedstead and a quantity of bed clothing, a table, two chairs, two pictures, and a lot of wearing apparel, amounting in value to $50, which they now refuse to return. A warrant was issued.

Admitted to Practice.—On Saturday morning, in the Court of Common Pleas and District Court, Mr. C. F. M'Kenna, on motion of John J. Mitchell, Esq., Mr. Alfred J. Treacy, on motion of W. C. Moreland, Esq., and Mr. W. S. Miller, on motion of Gen. F. H. Collier, were duly qualified and admitted to practice in the several county Courts. The gentlemen named passed very creditable examinations.

Meeting To-Night.—The officers of the various Tanner Clubs in Allegheny will hold a meeting this evening in the Fourth Ward Grant and Colfax headquarters, Sandusky street. The business to be brought before the meeting is the election of a Division Commander and the perfecting of sary arrangements for participation monstration next Thursday evennor of the Republican victories on by a Cow.—On Saturday evening ady, named McCarthy, met with nt which will probably prove fatal. les in the Sixteenth ward, and leavoring to drive a cow out of her animal turned and rushed upon ng her in a frightful manner, tearabdomen completely open and exhe entrails. She was removed to and Dr. H. H. Clark, of Lawrence- , called in. As the victim is about fifty years of age, and is wounded very badly, it is not probable that she will recover.

Accident.—Major W. M. Hartzell, of the GAZETTE staff, met with a serious accident last night, and one which might have resulted much more seriously. In going down a pair of steps to the rear of our building he tripped and fell some eight feet, lodging on some loose stones. His right arm was broken between the elbow and shoulder blade and he sustained other bruises. Dr. George L. McCook was called in and set the fractured limb, and he was conveyed to his residence in Birmingham. His many friends will be pained to learn of the accident, and none more than his friends of the GAZETTE.

Sentence Passed.

On Saturday morning the only sentence passed in the Criminal Court was that of George Leslie, convicted of committing an assault upon officer Green, of the Allegheny police, by shooting him in the arm with a pistol. The officer was in the act of arresting Leslie on suspicion of being a burglar. He resisted, and during the scuffle the pistol was discharged. Leslie alleges that the pistol was discharged accidentally. The Court remarked that inasmuch as the arrest was not entirely regular, and as the defendant had been confined in jail for some time, a short imprisonment only would be imposed. The defendant was then sentenced to undergo an imprisonin the county jail of sixty days.

Court Reporter Under the New Law.

W. D. Moore, Esq., presented a petition in the Court of Common Pleas, on Saturday morning, on behalf of the members of the bar for the appointment of Mr. O. T. Bennett, as phonographic court reporter. The petition recited the act of Assembly, passed in 1867, authorizing the appointment of a reporter, and urged the importance of the matter of the Court. The paper was signed by a large number of the members of the bar, and Messrs. Kirkpatrick, Mackrel, and others spoke in favor of the appointment. Judges Sterritt and Stowe also spoke favorably of the matter, but it was deemed proper to defer final action until next Saturday. In the meantime the petition will remain in the hands of Mr. B. F. Kennedy, Clerk of the Common Pleas Court. Mr. Bennett is a very worthy and accomplished gentleman, and a complete master of the science of phonography. No better selection for the position can be made.

LOCAL PREACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

First Days' Proceedings—Permanent Organization—Election of Officers—Appointment of Committees—Resolutions.

The Local Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are those who have been ordained to perform all the duties of regular ministers but are without pastoral charges, receive no compensation from the church and are without a vote in the deliberations of the annual or General Conferences, which govern the organization. The are generally men engaged in the active business pursuits of life, and are thus honored because of their exemplary christian character and peculiar fitness for the work, They perform a vast amount of labor in supplying vacant pulpits, relieving the pastor by conducting meetings and attending to other matters outside of the ordinary pulpit ministrations and in various ways render such assistance as makes them in usefulness and influence, perhaps second only to the regular ministers. Among their numbers have been found some of the brightest men of Methodism, whose christian zeal and untiring efforts have made brilliant the annals of the church.

Some eleven years ago, feeling the necessity and importance of a more perfect community of interest, they instituted an organization under the name of the National Local Preachers' Association of the M. E. Church. This Association commenced its eleventh annual Convention on Saturday afternoon in Christ Church, corner of Penn and Hancock streets, which thus far has been one of the most harmonious sessions ever held, and will doubtless be productive of great good in awakening interest in the organization.

The Convention was called to order at three o'clock by Rev. J. L. Von Boskirk, of New York, who, in the absence of the Chairman, presided, with Rev. D. T. McFarland, of Baltimore, as Secretary.

The exercises were commenced with singing the 217th hymn, after which Rev. Jacobin, of Cincinnati, led in prayer.

The hymn commencing

"I'm but a stranger here, Heaven is my home."

was sung, followed by calling over the list of delegates.

From the roll it appeared that there were representatives from the following Conferences: Baltimore, nine; East Baltimore, 5; Cincinnati three; Erie, three; Iowa, one; Newark, N. J., one; New York, eight; New York East, nine; Indiana, one; Ohio, one; Philadelphia, twelve; Lancaster, five; Dover, one; Pittsburgh, seventeen; Michigan, one; West Virginia, five; Central Pennsylvania, one; Troy, one; Wilmington, Ind., one; Wyoming, one.

Rev. W. H. Dikeman, of New York, offered a resolution that all local preachers present, coming from Conferences where there are associations which had not elected delegates, be courteou-ly and cordially invited to take seats in the Convention and participate in the proceedings but not vote.

After some discussion of this motion Rev. D. T. McFarland moved as a substitute that any travelling minister present be invited to a seat in the Convention with the same privileges as those of the regularly elected delegates.

A delegate moved to lay the substitute on the table, which was lost.

The substitute was then taken up and lost by a vote of 25 to 33.

The original motion was then adopted unanimously.

Rev. Dikeman offered a resolution to recognize those local preachers present from places where there were no Conferences to appoint them as regular delegates.

Carried.

Also, a resolution that all the members of annual Conferences be most cordially invited to participate in the proceedings of the Convention. Adopted.

A Nominating Committee to select officers for the ensuing year was then appointed consisting of eighteen members as follows:

W. Stevenson, of Baltimore Conference; A. Jamison, of Cincinnati Conference; F. E. Marine, of East Baltimore Conference; Dr. J. L. Read, Erie Conference; John McGee, Newark; E. Ashley, New Jersey; C. H. Scrimpton, New York; John Cottier, East New York; A. Gurney Northwest Indiana; Joseph Harris, Ohio; E. Pearson, Philadelphia; J. D. Dravo, Pittsburgh; H. F. Fenton, Maryland; J. H. Kennedy, West Virginia; Jas. Riddle, Wilmington; F. C. McGregor, Wyoming; W. W. Paxton, Wyoming; L. F. Wilkinson, Michigan.

The Chairman also appointed a Business Committee as follows: Wm. G. Young, Baltimore; A. Jamison, Cincinnati; Dr. Munroe, East Baltimore; Thomas Greer, Erie; John McGee, Newark; Chas. Lippincott, New Jersey; John M. Rowe, New York; C. H. Applegate, East New York; A. Gurney, North-west Indiana; Jos. Harris, Ohio; W. J. P. Ingraham, Philadelphia; E. E. Holmes, Pittsburgh; A. F. Fenton, Troy; J. F. Kennedy, West Virginia; F. France, Wilmington; F. C. McGregor, Wyoming; W. W. Paxton, Central Pennsylvania; S. F. Wilkinson, Michigan.

While the committees were out, Rev. C. C. Leigh, of New York, moved the appointment of a Special Committee of five to take into consideration the situation of Local Preachers, and report to the Association such measures as will be best calculated to make them more useful to the Church and the world.

After some discussion the resolution was amended so as to make the committee consist of one from each Conference, and adopted.

The following delegates were appointed said committee: D. M. Reese, Baltimore, John Forbus, Cincinnati, J. D. Alford, East Baltimore, H. R. McClintock, Erie, J. Magee, Newark, W. Wood, New Jersey, C. C. Leigh, New York, H. E. Fickett, East New York, A. Gurney, Northwest Indiana, Joseph Harris, Ohio, Benj. Scofield, Philadelphia, P. P. Lauffer, Pittsburgh, A. F. Fenton, Troy, F. Kennedy, West Virginia, Jas. Riddle, Wilmington, F. C. McGregor, Wyoming, W. W. Paxton, Central Pennsylvania, L. F. Wilkinson, Michigan.

The Chair then appointed the following delegates as a Committtee on Finance: Rev. Mr. Donnelly, Philadelphia. W. H. Forsyth, Baltimore, James Riddle, Wilmington, Chas. Baker Kent, Maryland, J. D. Dravo, Pittsburgh, J. F. Forbus, Cincinnati, Rev. Boss, New York.

The Nominating Committee presented their report as follows:

President—Edward Hefner, Baltimore.

Vice President—W. W. Paxton, John Gladding, J. F. Forbus, H. R. McClintock.

Recording Secretary—W. H. Kincaid.

Corresponding Secretary—W. J. P. Ingraham.

Treasurer—T. C. Pearson.

On motion, the Secretary pro tem, D. T. McFarland, was instructed to cast the vote of the Convention, which resulted in the election of the officers chosen by the Committee.

On motion, D. T. McFarland was elected Assistant Secretary.

The Chairman pro tem appointed Revs. Collins and Dikeman to conduct the President to the Chair.

Mr. Hefner, on taking the Chair, returned his thanks for the honor conferred upon him in a few well-timed and appropriate remarks, He had not the least idea of being called upon to act as presiding officer of the Convention, but as he was elected would endeavor to the best of his ability to perform the duties of the office courteously and to the satisfaction of all. He felt doubly honored in being conducted to the Chair by one of the oldest ministers in the Church, Father Collins, of Cincinnati. He hoped that in the proceedings and discussions they would all remember that they were Methodist preachers, and not lose sight of the fact that as Christian ministers they should manifest a spirit of kindness and brotherly love toward each other. He hoped that the influence of the present gathering would be such as to cause them all to go forth with the power of the Holy Spirit resting upon them, which would enable them to move forward and give new proof of their Divine commission.

On motion of Rev. C. C. Leigh a vote of thanks was tendered to the retiring officer, Rev. J. L. Von Boskirk, for the courteous and satisfactory manner in which he had discharged his duties.

Adjourned to meet at 7½ o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

Convention reassembled at 7½ o'clock, President Hefner in the Chair. The 247th hymn was sung, commencing,

"Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love."

Rev. John Fields, of Philadelphia, led in Prayer.

The minutes of the afternoon session were read and approved.

Dr. S. H. Nesbitt, of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, was then introduced and in a very neat and beautiful address, cordially welcomed the delegates to Pittsburgh.

Rev. C. C. Leigh, New York, in behalf of the delegates, replied in a feeling and happy manner, heartily reciprocating the sentiments of good will and cordiality which had been extended, and hoping that the Convention might be productive of much good in binding the hearts of the local preachers, east and west, more closely together.

Other brief addresses were made by Dr. L. F. Morgan, of Christ Church, Rev. Jno. Cottier, of New York Conference, and Rev. James Riddle, D. D.

The Convention united in singing the hymn commencing

"Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,"

Rev. W. H. Kincaid then introduced Revs. Dr. Fershing, W. H. Locke, R. Miller, H. Miller, S. M. Hickman, J. W. Baker, G. W. Lowman and M. B. Pugh, members of the Pittsburgh Conference.

The Secretary read a letter from Rev. George M. C. Roberts, D.D., of Baltimore, regretting his inability to be present on account of sickness, and earnestly hoping that the proceedings of the Convention might be harmonious, and accomplish that for which it was convened.

Rev. John Fields moved that the letter be accepted and recorded in the minutes, and that a Committee consisting of the President and the Secretaries be appointed to prepare a suitable reply. Carried.

The Secretary presented another letter from the Corresponding Secretary, Rev. C. C. Goss, of New York, expressing great regret for his unavoidable absence, and containing a proposition to publish one thousand copies of the minutes free of expense to the Association. The letter was filed and the proposition referred to the Committee on Business.

Rev. W. H. Kincaid read the report of the Committee on Worship, in regard to the services of the Sabbath and the appointments of the preachers to the different pulpits throughout the vicinity.

The session closed at ten o'clock, with the usual devotional exercise to meet on Monday at nine o'clock A. M.

The services yesterday consisted of a prayer meeting at nine o'clock in the morning, the love feast at three o'clock in the afternoon in charge of the President of the Convention, and a general meeting at night, at which representatives from each Conference made brief addresses. It was designed to have a sermon in the morning at ten and a half o'clock by Prof. Frost, of Waltham, Massachusetts, the retiring President, but owing to the non-arrival of this gentleman this part of the exercises had to be dispensed with.

The meetings during the day attracted large audiences of ministers and friends from all congregations throughout the cities. They were of an exceedingly interesting character and highly enjoyed by all who attended.

The programme for to-day embraces a meeting for business at nine o'clock, which will be su-pended at ten and a half o'clock, when the annual sermon will be delivered by Rev. John McCillop, of New York, followed by the administration of the sacrament.

The afternoon session will be occupied principally with business.

In the evening the Convention will reassemble at seven and a half o'clock and spend an hour and a half transacting the closing business of the gathering and the delivering of short addresses by the delegates.

At nine o'clock the delegates and invited guests will adjourn to the Chapel of the Pittsburgh Female College to enjoy the reunion and banquet tendered by President Pershing and the city pastors.

At the conclusion of the banquet the Convention will adjourn sine die.

The Disappointed Politician.

"I took the rabble's shouts for love;
The wealth of friends for truth."

In all political issues one or the other of the great political parties is destined to disappointment in the end, for both cannot be successful. It were wise, then, for rivals to prepare themselves for the gladness of victory or the disappointment of defeat, for one or the other must inevitably come. But we are not in politics, so we shall revert to the fact that the forerunners of winter, the frisky north wind, the mischievous frost and gentle fall of snow, have made us aware of the rapid approach of the old ice-crowned monarch, Winter. The sharp, keen blasts which herald his coming warn us to prepare for his reception. We don new and heavier clothing, and the question naturally arrises in what shall we enrobe ourselves to best withstand the nipping cold and preserve our health and comfort. "Cover thyself with furs," whispers Dame Nature, "take lessons from the dumb animals who, a s the winter draws on, are supplied by my hand with much heavier covering to protect themselves." The lesson told is worthy attention. Explorers in the far off regions of the north, where naught but mountains of ice lift their peaks to heaven to freeze the very atmosphere they penetrate, found protection from terrible death only in wearing garments of fur, as all fabrics were penetrated with the chilling blasts as readily as plays the summer breeze through the interstices of a lady's veil, But we cannot talk of furs but we are brought to think of that great emporium which is so closely allied to the subject, the wholesale and retail house of Mr. William Fleming, No. 139 Wood street. Here are thrown up barriers against old Winter in the way of immense collections of ladies' and gentlemens' wearing fur apparel, of every style, variety and pattern. The stock is so rich, so complete and so large that we might spend a column in detail and still do it great injustice. Here the visitor will find a selection from which to chose vastly superior to those presented by eastern houses, from the richest Hudson Bay and Mink Sable, to the cheaper though equally fashionable grades. In looking through the large stock of this popular and representative house the other day, our attention was particularly attracted by complete sets of Water Mink and other cheap grades, which cannot be excelled for comfort, style and beauty by other sets we examined which run away up into the fifties and hundreds, and yet selling as low as from eight to twenty dollars per set. Every visitor is reminded that it is an imperative rule with this house that no salesman is allowed to make the slightest misrepresentation for sake of accomplishing a sale, and in all cases patrons are shown just such goods as they ask for, no attempts ever being made to palm off the inferior for the superior article.

The country merchant is invited to call and examine the large and superior stock of hats, caps and furs to be found in the exclusively wholesale departments of this popular house, which will be sold by the case or dozen at the very lowest eastern rates. Retail purchasers will remember that they can save from fifteen to twenty-five per cent. by directing their patronage to Mr. Fleming's, sign of the great golden hat, No. 139 Wood street.

Pittsburgh, Past and Present.

In Leisure Hours, a very interesting literary monthly Magazine, published in this city, we find a well written sketch of "Pittsburgh, past and present," from the gifted pen of J. Trainor King, Esq.

The author has set about to furnish a graphic, truthful and at the same time interesting history of Pittsburgh proper and Western Pennsylvania. We are quite sure that, when completed, Mr. King's sketch of the city will be the most accurate production of the character extant, as he has spared neither labor nor expense to collect all that will interest the general reader; and, knowing so well how to weave together his facts, he will furnish a history well worthy the name. In connection with the history, biographical sketches and portraits of our leading citizens will be published in Leisure Hours, together with a full quantity of original and select literary matter.

We select a paragraph concerning the GAZETTE which we feel will be of interest to our readers. The author says:

"In 1786 the town had so far progressed that the idea of having a newspaper to send greeting to all the world glad tidings of the discovery of an Eldorado in the far West, was conceived, and John Scull and Joseph Hall, two poor but enterprising young men, concluded to join fortunes in the enterprise of publishing a paper here—the first west of the mountains. Accordingly a moderate supply of type and a press were procured in the East and brought over the mountains, at a heavy expense, and the first issue of the Pittsburgh GAZETTE was worked off on the 29th day of July, of the same year, 1786. That paper lives yet, and, notwithstanding the buffeting of time—the early disadvantages it had to contend with—the ups and downs of party, monetory revulsions and at times bad management in the financial department, it is to-day one of the most successful quarto dailies west of the mountains; a credit to the city Present and a relic of the Past. During its whole existence it has consistently opposed Democracy and been radically on the other extreme. In its infancy and during the existence of the Whig and Tory parties, it espoused the Tory cause—later, the Anti-Masonic, the Whig, the Republican, and now the Radical; and at all times, except when languishing from want of support or incompetent management, it has been powerful, and without exception a reliable advocate of the principles of its party. It now belongs to and is controlled and managed exclusively by Messrs. F. B. Penniman, Josiah King, T. P. Houston and N. P. Reed, active business men, able and experienced writers and in good standing in the community for moral worth and business integrity. In their hands and while their energies last, the GAZETTE is likely to bud and bring forth fruit, and remain in time to come, as it is now, a monument of the past."

Raid on a Shanty.

A number of boys in the neighborhood of the Miner's Hotel, had erected a shanty on the hill just above it, where they were accustomed to congregate and spend the time in playing cards and such like amusements. On Saturday they annoyed the boarders at the hotel by throwing stones through the windows into their rooms. The police made a raid upon the establishment, but failed to secure any of the party, who perceived their approach and hastily evacuated the premises. The shanty contained a stove, settees and chairs, all the latest sporting papers, cards and other game tackle in innumerable quantities, and in fact was fitted up and furnished with everything necessary to make it a good loafing place for the class who congregated in it. The police, deeming the establishment an annecessary ornament to that portion of the city, gave orders for its immediate demolishment, which were quickly carried out by the neighbors in the vicinity.

Fatal Accident on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

A serious accident, resulting, it appears, from the diabolical action of some unknown person, occurred Saturday night on the Pennsylvania Railroad. The Cincinnati Express train, due here at 9:10 yesterday morning, left Philadelphia as usual at 7:50 Saturday evening. At Christiana, about midway between Philadelphia and Harrisburg, the train was thrown from the track by running upon a misplaced switch. The engine and tender and the baggage car were badly wrecked. Wm. Irwin, the engineer, and —— Schultz were instantly killed, and Peter Stein, the baggage master, was so seriously injured that he died shortly after the accident. The switch had evidently been wilfully misplaced by some wretch, whose arrest and summary punishment we sincerely hope for. The train was delayed about twelve hours.

A Little Burglarious.

Yesterday morning, at a very early hour, the saloon of Mr. Charles Walters, No. 660 Penn street, was entered by one or more burglarious wretches, and a pretty thorough attempt, with very small results, made to rob the premises. The thieves gained entrance by breaking a large hole in the front window. The saloon was thoroughly ransacked, but Mrs Walters, in the absence of her husband, who is on a visit East, had taken all the money in the drawer to her sleeping-room up stairs; consequently a very small realization was made. Having concluded their investigation, the visitors unlocked the front door and went away. There is no clue to the unwelcome visitors.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—John E. Owens, the great comedian, commences a second engagement at the Opera House this evening. Last week he drew very comfortable audiences notwithstanding the great political excitement which prevailed. To miss seeing and hearing Mr. Owens is to drive a nail in one's own coffin. To-night the admirable play of "Self," with a favorite farce will be presented.

BURNELL'S MUSEUM.—The Museum continues to be largely patronized and the curious attractions are more than ever numerous. The four legged child, a wonderful freak of nature, will be on exhibition this week.

WASHINGTON, PA.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, PA., October 16, 1868.

EDITORS GAZETTE: The excitement of the election is rapidly passing away. It was intense. Both parties did their best here, both were sanguine of success. The vote polled was very large. The Democracy were too many, they carried this borough by thirty-one of a majority, and the county by one. Money and whisky did the business. The impression is that we nave among us some weak-kneed and treacherous Republicans. These men went over to the enemy. Such men are contemptible.

The scenes of Tuesday night were somewhat amusing. When the result in the borough was announced, the Democracy, making their headquarters at the office of the Review, raised an uproarious shout. Township after township came in reporting Democratic gains. This increased the shouting until it was almost deafening. All this time the poor Republicans were as still as death, their heads hung like bulrushes. Gradually the scene began to change, the news grew more encouraging to the Republicans. It was now their turn to shout, They did it feebly at first, but by eleven o'clock the telegraph had brought enough intelligence to settle the question. We had heard from the Republican Gibraltar of the State, and elsewhere, we knew all was safe, the overwhelming tide was rolling on, so the Democracy subsided, slipping away one by one till all were gone, thus leaving the Republicans rejoicing over a nation once more redeemed. Thanks to a kind Providence, whose Almighty arm is still uncovered for our defence, the Republic is safe! Let all the people shout aloud for joy.

On the 3d of November this borough and county will give a better account of themselves. They will go for Grant and Colfax. Put that down as certain.

Our Agricultural Fair began on Wednesday, and will close to-day, Friday. It is a funny thing. The agricultural display is not very prominent. There are, however, some very fine stock—cattle, sheep and hogs. The ring, where the speed of the horses is tested, attracts a large share of attention. There the multitudes throng. Floral Hall has some attractions, some fine flowers and fruits.

Side shows are numerous, all proclaiming themselves "moral." There is also a dancing platform, where a set of fools are constantly exercising themselves. We understand this dancing is a part of the Fair, allowed or authorized by the Board of Managers of the ground. What a shame! We hope it will be repeated—never. The weather is fine and the people are here by the thousand. This afternoon a grand masquerade took place. Men and boys on horseback to the number of a score rode through the fair grounds, and afterward through the streets. That was queer enough.

Thus ended our Agricultural Fair.

This evening, at seven o'clock, the Synod of Wheeling, Old School Presbyterian, met in this place. The retiring Moderator, Rev. Mr. Flanagan, of the West Virginia Presbytery, preached the opening sermon. He is a plain, earnest man. The Synod was organized by electing Rev. A. McCarroll, of Washington Presbytery, Moderator, and Rev. G. W. Chalfant temporary Clerk. Of the ministerial members of the Synod a fair proportion answered to their names, but of the lay members a very few. Others will doubtless come yet. This is a large Synod. Of it we may say more.

AMICUS.

From New Castle, Pa.

NEW CASTLE, Oct. 17, 1868.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—New Castle was in a blaze of glory last night, the occasion being a jollification over the recent victories in the Keystone and other States. The Bank Block and the residences of Messrs. E. S. Durban, Geo. Reis, Geo. Pearson, E. Sankey and others were most brilliantly illuminated with Chinese lanterns. The Tanners, headed by an excellent martial band, were out in full force, and fairly outdid themselves by their various manœuvers. The illumination was the grandest ever seen in New Castle. Lawrence county is good for 2,200 for Grant.

Snow fell this morning for over an hour, but it rapidly disappeared.

The Grant and Colfax Base Ball Club have accepted the "defi" of the Seymour and Blair Club, the match to be played next week. I predict a "whelming" success for the exponents of the Republican ticket.

Lawrence sends greeting to Allegheny.

Church of God Eldership.

NEW BRIGHTON, Oct. 16, 1868.

The West Pennsylvania Eldership of the Church of God commenced its annual session in this place yesterday evening in the Bethel Church. The opening sermon was preached by Elder J. Hovis. Between twenty and thirty clergymen are in attendance, and about fifteen laymen. The meeting will continue several days. The distinctive features of this denomination are immersion as the only mode of baptism, washing the saints' feet as an ordinance in the Church, and celebrating the Eucharist only in the evening. The late Rev. John Winebrenner was their founder. More anon. W. B.

Punshon's Lectures.

This celebrated English orator, who is to lecture in the Keystone Rink, Allegheny City, next Wednesday and Thursday evenings, will, beyond all doubt, be greeted by a vast audience. Parties have written for tickets to the office of the Christian Advocate, where they are for sale, from Meadville, Washington, Monongahela City, Brownsville, Beaver and Wheeling. Since Mr. Punshon has lectured in Boston, he has been offered fifteen hundred dollars in gold for a course of his lectures there. Hear him—the opportunity may not occur again.

GEN. ROBERT ANDERSON.—A public token of gratitude for the patriotic services of Gen. Robert Anderson at Fort Sumpter has been suggested. It is stated that the General has an invalid wife, who lost all her own means during the war, and two young children, whose education must be provided for; and his salary is his only resource. His health is broken by long service in the army, and by the hardships he endured while holding Fort Sumter with a handful of men against the combined forces of the rebels in 1861.

BEFORE the late elections, many Democrats said they could not vote for the Republicans in October, but that they would support Grant in November; and these will be assisted by a great many more who frankly admit that further opposition to the Great Captain is simply silly partizanship. The common sense of such men will next month do what common gratitude failed to effect last Tuesday.—Phil. Press.

Reign of Terror in Arkansas.

It is impossible to disguise the fact that the rebels of Arkansas means fight. Day by day they are butchering the Union men in detail, shooting them frequently on sight, like so many mad dogs. The Union men are in the majority, and are fully competent to put down this bloody work, but every attempt looking towards its suppression is characterized at once by every Democratic paper in this country as "a declaration of war," "villainous oppression," "bloody intentions of the scalawags and carpet-baggers," etc. In many counties it is not safe for a registering officer to make his appearance at all.

Such a reign of terror has been inaugurated along the ordinary routes of travel, that unarmed Union men are compelled to take the swamp, in the style of 1861-62, and flank the residences of rebels by night. Even the authority of the loyal State Government is not sufficient to open the rivers. Arms belonging to the State are now lying here, as effectually quarantined as they could have been by the blockade of the river in 1861. No boat dares touch them. The pilots would be liable to be shot at the wheel; the boat would be liable to be grounded, sunk, burned, anything so as to keep the Unionists disarmed.—Memphis Bulletin, October 7.

STRONG DEMOCRATIC ARGUMENTS.—The Governor of the State has proof—General Miles has proof—that the Democrats are arming. If these arms are not designed to be used, why are they brought in and deposited at various places? If they are to be used for hunting purposes only, why are they not single shooting rifles and double-barreled shot guns? But they are repeating rifles—they are rifles that can be discharged seventeen times without reloading! Are such weapons intended to shoot game? No, fellow-citizens, they are intended to shoot men, and it may be women and children.—Raleigh (N. C.) Standard.

IT IS probable that Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana, has gone clear down to the bottom this time. He has caught at twig and branch and crag in his fall, but they have failed to break it. Before the Fourth of July Convention the shadow of the Presidency was grasped at; then the chances of a return to the United States Senate; then the vague prospect of being Governor of Indiana. When he went to the ground last, he "thudded" like a soggy log.—Chicago Post.

THE Copperhead Democracy of the country is red hot at the suggestion of the World and the Manhattan Club to throw overboard Seymour and Blair. The World and the advocates of a change of front are assailed in the bitterest language by the red-hot Democracy, and denounced as "cowards," "cravens," "poltroons," and "recreants." "Take down Seymour and Blair," shout these red-hot braves, "and you take down the pillars of Democracy."
